

How to Get Five Reviews in Five Days

Getting Google reviews is critical for real estate agents. Reviews inspire trust with prospects and help agents with 5+ reviews appear in 9X more searches and net 17X more actions than agents with zero reviews. Getting high quality reviews frequently should top any agent’s priority list if she’s trying to maintain and expand her business. We recommend generating at least five reviews every month to keep your profile front and center.

Performance After Three Months

Three Tips for Generating Five Reviews in Five Days

- 1 Our research shows that, on average, an agent generates one review for every three to four review requests. This means that if you want to get five reviews, you need to send 20 review requests per month.
- 2 Use the Homesnap Pro+ One-Click Review Tool. The one-click review makes it easy for you to email and/or text review requests and increases your chances of getting a review. That's because we automate request reminders for you up to three times before moving on.

You can also send reviews in a single click to known contacts and affiliates inside of Homesnap Pro. We populate these for you.

- 3 Ask everyone, well, almost everyone, for a review. Google believes everyone has a voice, which means you can generate reviews from anyone you trust to leave you a good review. Our recommendations include: happy clients, agents in your office, agents you've worked with before, family, friends, and friends of friends and family.
