BUTTER MINTS RECIPE

In the first Hosea video, I share how I used to make butter mints with my family. I even take a bite out of one at the end of the video! So, I've provided the recipe for you. Print one for you and all your friends! They are sweet, wonderful, and refreshing - just like God's unfailing love!

BUTTER MINTS

INGREDIENTS

1 lb box confectioners' sugar (4 c.)
1 stick butter, softened
1/2 tsp peppermint oil
1 tbs milk

- 1 Mix ingredients with a mixer until blended. The mixture will be coarse crumbs.
- 2 Knead the crumbs together to make sure it is moistened. You can add a little more milk if it's too dry, or a little more sugar if it's too moist.
- 3 Form a small ball and press it into the mold. HINT: I pour some powdered sugar in a shallow bowl and dredge each little ball of mint dough through it to avoid sticking to the mold.
- 4 Pop the mint out of the mold onto some wax paper and allow to dry for at least an hour.
- 5 Store in single layers with wax paper between each layer. These freeze well. But why freeze them when you can eat the whole batch?!

“TASTE & SEE THAT THE LORD IS GOOD;
BLESSED IS THE ONE WHO TAKES REFUGE IN HIM.”

PSALM 34:8

IDOL BUSTING PRAYER

When an idolotrinket calls your name, you can break its power through prayer. The prayer is easy to remember because it's only four phrases and each starts with a letter spelling the word...IDOL! This is how you can redeem your idols through prayer.

I: INCLINE

Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to selfish gain! (Psalm 119:36)

Lord, please tilt me toward You and away from my idolotrinket. I am naturally inclined to selfishness — what I want when I want it. But, God, You have drawn me to Yourself and I want to be drawn to You and Your Word. When I feel a flutter of insecurity and feel inclined to soothe it with an idolotrinket, I ask You to pull me to Yourself — incline my heart to You and away from that thing I am trying to replace You with. God, You redeem everything, including my wayward impulses. So, when the idolotrinket starts to call my name, I will speak the name of the Lord!

D: DELIGHT

Delight yourself in the Lord (Psalm 37:4)

Lord, when I am drawn to one of my idolotrinkets because they are appealing and make shiny promises, I choose to delight in You alone. I delight in You, Lord, and ask You to tuck right desires into my heart. This thing, this idolotrinket, may be delightful, but it is not my Source of delight, You are. So, put in me the desire I need to have right now. Make my desire for honoring You stronger than my desire for serving myself.

O: OPEN

I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe (Ephesians 1:18-19)

Lord, open my spiritual eyes so I can see the hope to which I am called. An empty idolotrinket won't give me hope. An idolotrinket can't give me an inheritance of confidence, security, or identity. Only You give me those things. Remind me of Your power in me.

L: LOVE

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and strength (Deuteronomy 6:5)

Lord, I love You. I want to love You with more than my words, but with my whole heart, my life, my strength, and my soul. With all my strength, I offer You my love and devotion. Make my desire for this idolotrinket shrink and my desire for You grow. Amen.

*“...We will never again say ‘Our gods’ to what our own hands have made,
for in you the fatherless find compassion.” (Hosea 14:3b)*
