

Long Standing Santa Ynez Valley Donut Shop Receives New Ownership

Buellton, Ca. December 1, 2018 – After seven and one-half years of owning and operating Donut Time in Buellton, Greg and Cecilia Fariss have decided to sell the local sweet treat to God's Country Provisions, a local brand created by business partners and friends, Loren and Sarah Ollenburger and Craig and Tracy Minus. The sale will be official as of December 1, 2018, with Greg still overseeing operations until December 24, 2018. At that time, the store front will temporarily close for renovations until the Grand Re-Opening in January 2019. During this time, the brick and mortar will receive a face lift, while the brand will also be working towards expanding operating hours and hiring additional staff. Service to all wholesale partners will continue during the renovations.

The Ollenburger and Minus families look forward to being a part of the local business community. Both relocated to the area within the past 3 years and feel fortunate to be raising their families here in the valley.

“God's Country Provisions was created to highlight what we all love about the Santa Ynez Valley—the people, the places, the food. Our hope with this first store is to add creativity to familiar donuts and deliver them with country hospitality,” says Ollenburger.

“Greg has been an incredible part of this community, helping with so many weddings, birthdays, fundraisers and other local events. We look forward to continuing that, as well as supporting our local schools and athletic organizations,” says Minus.

God's Country Provisions was established in 2018 as a lifestyle collection that draws inspiration from the beauty of the Central Coast and the Santa Ynez Valley. The brand brings together products and experiences that evoke the spirit of a simpler, country way of life. The brand and all of its entities is a partnership between the Ollenburger and Minus families.
