Laura R. Gerber is a strong advocate for her clients. From her early years in a whistleblower protection organization, to her current practice litigating against some of America’s largest corporations, Laura has built her career as an advocate on behalf of both employees and customers of large corporations. Laura represents her clients with skill, tact and diplomacy. As a result, Laura’s clients trust her to listen carefully, keep them informed, provide excellent legal advice, and to diligently pursue their interests in litigation against powerful defendants.

For over a decade, Laura has practiced in Keller Rohrback’s Complex Litigation Group where she has developed a diverse practice with a focus on holding corporations and other institutions accountable to their customers and employees, including qui tam cases, breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty cases, Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”) cases, consumer protection class actions, mutual fund excessive fee cases, and Ponzi scheme cases. Laura’s strategic persistence in complex cases has led to impressive results with her clients receiving substantial recoveries.

While in law school, Laura concurrently received a Master’s degree in Public Administration and was a member of the Moot Court Honor Board.
