Editor-in-Chief, Seattle University
Law Review

Emma's fierce intelligence and attention to detail allows her to delve into the legal intricacies of every case. Emma brings great enthusiasm to Keller Rohrback's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group—a practice for which she is well suited, as each case is unique and intellectually demanding.

Having aspired to be an attorney since childhood, Emma was initially drawn to litigation when she took a civil procedure course in law school and learned just how complex and rule-intensive litigation is. In addition, Emma sees complex litigation as an avenue with which to hold large corporations accountable, which connects to her personal dedication to equity.

In 2020, Emma graduated magna cum laude with her J.D. from Seattle University School of Law, where she served as Editor-in-Chief of the Seattle University Law Review, on the Moot Court Board, and as a research assistant to her civil procedure professor. During law school, she also externed for Judge John C. Coughenour of the Western District of Washington.

Drawn to the firm's culture of collaboration and commitment to social justice, Emma first worked at Keller Rohrback as a summer associate in 2018 and 2019, eventually returning to the firm full-time as an associate attorney in 2020. She is excited to rejoin the team working on In re: Facebook, Inc. Consumer Privacy User Profile Litigation, which the firm filed when Emma was a 1L summer associate.

In her spare time, Emma enjoys skiing, traveling, and spending time with her dog, Winter.
