

22 years of creating work that works

We're an independent brand and advertising agency of 40 proven people. Our home is in a progressive, iconoclastic city that's no stranger to big ideas. So it makes sense Seattle is also home to an agency with untamable creative energy.

CF was named Small Agency of the Year by AdAge in 2015 and 2019, the only agency in the NW region to be recognized twice in five years. Open to all independent agencies of fewer than 200 employees, the award is given for creativity, client results, and agency culture.

The company we keep

Forty agencies. Six continents. Over 100 cities. Let's do this.

We're a member of Magnet Global, a partnership of fiercely independent advertising agencies across the globe. Want to enter a new market and need local insights, in the USA or abroad? Done. Need to launch a worldwide campaign? Done. Have offices all over the place that need in-person daily contact? Done and done. We actively work with member agencies on a daily basis. And best of all, it's all seamless to you.
