B.A., summa cum laude, 1997

University of Washington School of Law

J.D., 2001

Ian is a trial lawyer representing people who have been injured because of insurance bad faith, medical negligence, product liability, workplace discrimination, and in auto and trucking collisions.

Ian believes the courtroom is a place to make society safer and fairer for everyone. His work has resulted in landmark rulings protecting consumers, including representation of a family who was sued by their own insurance company, arguing to reinstate a jury verdict after a judge improperly overruled the jury, and testifying before the Washington Legislature in support of consumers making insurance claims. Known for his representation of people and businesses when they have disputes with insurance companies, Ian is a sponsor of United Policyholders, a public interest non-profit which provides guidance on insurance claims for consumers.

A fifth generation Washingtonian and lifelong resident of the Pacific Northwest, Ian has served on the Board of Governors and as Chair of the Insurance Section of the American Association for Justice. He also regularly volunteers at the King County Bar Association Neighborhood Legal Clinic.
