

Whalen Tire Has Been Acquired by Pomp's Tire Service

TRANSACTION ANNOUNCEMENT | DISTRIBUTION | JUNE 2022

SEATTLE, WA -- Alexander Hutton is pleased to announce the sale of Whalen Tire of Butte, Montana to Pomp's Tire Service of Green Bay, Wisconsin

Regarding the transaction, Alexander Hutton Managing Director James Thompson said, "We are very pleased to have served the Whalen family in their sale to Pomp's Tire Service, a family-owned chain of tire service centers located in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Due to Pomp's continued geographical expansion, Whalen's Montana-based footprint was ideal. Given the strong alignment and fit between the parties, we were thrilled to assist the Whalens throughout this transaction."

Commenting on the work of Alexander Hutton, Whalen Tire President Tom Whalen said, "As a family business, it can be complicated finding a transaction that satisfies all parties. The Alexander Hutton team appreciated that nuance and found us an ideal partner in Pomp's Tire Service of Green Bay, Wisconsin. While a much larger family business, Pomp's gives our people the opportunity to continue to thrive. Put simply, this was a complicated deal and we could not have done it without the Alexander Hutton team. "

Paul Wochinske, President of Pomp's Tire Service, said, "We are very pleased to expand our footprint into Montana and Washington, states that are experiencing significant post-pandemic growth. The Whalen family has built a very strong team of tire experts in ideal locations, and we expect to continue their long and successful track record serving customers."

Legal counsel for the Whalen shareholders was Datsopoulos, MacDonald and Linde, while Pomp's Tire Service was represented by Hager, Dewick & Zuengler, S.C. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
