

ANNOUNCEMENT

Alexander Hutton Welcomes Theodore McDonald to the Team

PRESS RELEASE | JANUARY 2023

Alexander Hutton welcomes former intern Theo McDonald to the firm as an Analyst.

Theo assists the execution team through research, preparation of deal marketing materials, financial analysis and modeling, and due diligence. Theo is a valuable asset to the Alexander Hutton team, bringing strong work ethic, quantitative and analytical abilities, and a curiosity and willingness to learn. Theo is from Bellevue and attended Gonzaga University, where he was captain of the school's tennis and graduated Summa Cum Laude. He is currently ranked top 25 in the United States for his division.

Managing Director James Thompson commented, "As a prior intern, Theo impressed us with his intelligence, great attitude and strong work ethic. At Alexander Hutton, it's very important that young professionals see the ability to build a career by learning from others. Theo fits our mold."

Regarding his decision to join the firm, Theo commented, "I am very excited to join the Alexander Hutton team and look forward to delivering high quality work. I am grateful for this opportunity and feel that Alexander Hutton's supportive and collaborative environment will ignite my development as an analyst. I chose Alexander Hutton because of their strong values and steadfast dedication to clients."

About Theo McDonald

Theo graduated Summa Cum Laude from Gonzaga University, where he pursued a B.A. in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. Theo was a member of the tennis team through all four years of undergraduate. Upon graduation, Theo received the Gonzaga Business Excellence Award and NCAA Scholar Athlete of the Year Award. Prior to joining Alexander Hutton, Theo held a summer analyst position at Seattle-based private equity firm, Pike Street Capital. At Pike Street, Theo gained a wide variety of experience, spanning from maintaining relationships with investment candidate companies to sourcing leads and market research. Theo is excited to bring new perspective and insight to the M&A process.

About Alexander Hutton

With 220+ completed transactions, Alexander Hutton is a highly established middle-market investment banking firm with deep relationships in the Northwest. Since 1986, Alexander Hutton has advised its clients with the skill of seasoned investment bankers and the empathy and understanding of former business operators. The firm's clients are in a variety of industries that reflect the Northwest's worldwide expertise in manufacturing, technology, services, healthcare, & logistics. Alexander Hutton is a very proud member of the Northwest region and puts great value in its local connections and nurturing of its community from all levels of the firm.

