

Barton & Guestier is one of the oldest and most prestigious wine negociants in Bordeaux. The firm was established in 1725 by Thomas Barton, renowned négociant. Daniel Guestier was a reputed importer of Bordeaux wines into Baltimore, in the British colonies in America, and the one who delivered the wines of Bordeaux that President Thomas Jefferson had ordered from Barton.

HERITAGE 290th

AOC DUCHE D'UZES

Following the same visionary spirit of its founders and at the occasion of its 290th anniversary, B&G has launched Héritage, the first wine brand, non vintage, offering consistency in style and quality whatever the cuvée.

Appellation: AOC Duché D'Uzès

Location: Southern Rhône, between Nîmes and Alés.

Grape Varieties: 80% Syrah, 20% Grenache

Tasting note: Intense ruby color with violet highlights. An explosion of black fruit, black pepper combined with liquorice and tobacco notes when agitated. Well balanced, with an harmonious texture. Long fruity and spicy aftertaste.

Pairing: Lamb, duck, beef, dark chocolate, strong cheeses, spicy dishes.
