Chris Springer is dedicated to working to help people who have been harmed by the unlawful conduct of large corporations and other entities.

He is a partner in Keller Rohrback's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group and practices in the firm's Santa Barbara office. He is experienced in cases involving consumer protection, data security, environmental protection, disability access, employment rights, and ERISA.

Before joining Keller Rohrback, Chris worked in the field of software development and testing. His practice now focuses on data-privacy and other consumer-protection litigation. Since joining Keller Rohrback, he helped obtain a multimillion-dollar recovery in Corona v. Sony Pictures Entertainment, Inc., No. 14-9600 (C.D. Cal.), which involved the theft and disclosure of medical, financial, and employment information. He is also actively involved in other data privacy matters, including In re 21st Century Oncology Customer Data Security Breach Litigation, which involves the unauthorized disclosure of personal and medical information.
