Alexander Hutton Celebrates the Promotion of Ben Thacker to Associate

PRESS RELEASE | FEBRUARY 2025

Alexander Hutton is pleased to announce the promotion of Ben Thacker to Associate.

The firm is pleased to announce Ben's promotion to Associate, recognizing his strong work ethic, leadership, and significant potential for growth.

Ben joined Alexander Hutton as an Analyst in 2023 and quickly became a key member of the transaction execution team, where he facilitated the creation of deal marketing materials and financial models, managed the due diligence process, and lead a team of interns this past summer. Ben's unwavering commitment to his work and passion for working with business owners will continue to be a great asset to Alexander Hutton for years to come.

In his new role as Associate, Ben will take on additional responsibility in the transaction execution process including a more client-facing role and additional internal responsibilities.

Managing Director James Thompson commented, "Ben has made a significant impact on our ability to execute with excellence in our client engagements. He has a keen commercial mind rooted in analytics informed by being a CPA. He is also great at client-facing tasks, able to manage multiple situations and multiple personalities, simultaneously."

Reflecting on his promotion, Ben commented, "I am extremely grateful to work with the team at Alexander Hutton and I appreciate that we have an incredibly strong culture focused on employee development and advancement. I love the work we do at AH, where each transaction provides new learning opportunities and a chance to build a strong relationship with our clients. With this promotion, I look forward to the added responsibilities in my new role and continuing to guide talented entrepreneurs through complex M&A transactions."
