

HOUSEKEEPER & SERVER

Department Housekeeping

Supervisor Housekeeping & Serving Supervisor

Position Term Late May through mid-September

About Camp Denali Camp Denali is a small, family-run wilderness lodge located in the heart of Denali National Park. The Park Road is temporarily closed at its midway point, meaning that our only access is by air. We are currently operating as a fly-in lodge and we will continue to do so until the Park Road reopens, likely Summer 2027.

Position Description Camp Denali has a number of housekeeping roles collectively accountable for upkeep of all of the public buildings, guest cabins, and staff housing. Housekeeping shifts also include time to serve guest meals—breakfast and/or dinner. Housekeeping and serving tasks span a broad range of duties and demand flexibility, an eye for detail, and strong teamwork.

Compensation Pay begins at $16.50 per hour / $24.75 per OT hour / $169.13 per 9.5-hour day. Employer may pay higher wages based on seniority with Camp Denali and level of skill. Room and professionally prepared meals are provided free for the summer. A travel stipend is paid upon completion of a full season. Gratuities are pooled and divided equally among all staff, amounting to approximately $500/person/month.

Major Functions Each member of the housekeeping department will be given individual job assignments. Although specifics may vary, everyone should be prepared to support the following:

- Cleaning Camp Denali buildings, including guest cabins, outhouses and bathrooms, public buildings, and staff housing.
- Laundry and fabric care (mending, spot removal, etc.).
- Trash and recycling tasks.
- Serving breakfast and dinner to guests.
- Keeping an eye out for housekeeping problems and communicating issues and proposed solutions to the Housekeeping & Serving Supervisor.
- Working as fill-in for other housekeeping staff in case of illness or other emergencies.

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities A demonstrated ability to function successfully within a team, as well as bring individual attention to detail, thoroughness, and quick mastery of complex roles and responsibilities are essential. An artistic eye and good design sense are valuable assets in this role. The position requires good time management, a personal commitment to thorough job completion, solid verbal communication skills, and physical stamina. Astute guest awareness, a professional demeanor, and attentiveness to dietary concerns and cross-contamination concerns when serving meals. Serving or restaurant experience is beneficial, though not required. Sewing skills are a plus.

Other Requirements

- Bring a genuine desire to live and work in a remote, self-sufficient, small community setting.
- All staff are required to have a current Alaska Food Worker card (online, on-demand, valid for three years).

Working Conditions & Physical Demands This position consists of a physically demanding 9.5-hour day of manual labor. It involves exposure to cleaning compounds (we strive to use as many environmentally friendly cleaning products as possible), daily foot and vehicle travel on uneven and sometimes steep terrain, indoor and outdoor walking of up to five miles each day, climbing ladders to access storage areas, lifting/carrying awkward loads up to 30 pounds, and repeated bending. Regular, professional communication with fellow staff both in person and via radio is an integral part of the job.
