Damien Rainford brings a multifaceted perspective to complex legal challenges.

A New York native, Damien joins Keller Rohrback's complex litigation team after completing a clerkship with the Honorable Linda W.Y. Coburn at the Washington State Court of Appeals. He is passionate about leveraging his legal skills to advocate for fairness and justice, particularly in the areas of data privacy and intellectual property.

Damien earned his Juris Doctor from Fordham University School of Law, where he served as Managing Editor of the Fordham Environmental Law Journal and was an Executive Board Member of the Black Law Students Association. His experience extends beyond academics, including work with judges and public defenders on community education initiatives.

Outside of the legal arena, Damien enjoys playing soccer, exploring Seattle's vibrant restaurant scene and hopes to rekindle his passion for music production and DJing.
