Benjamin Gould makes the law work for his clients.

Ben, a Seattle native, practices in Keller Rohrback's nationally recognized Complex Litigation Group.

His ability to clearly and efficiently communicate factual and legal issues to his clients and courts allows him to adeptly serve the interest of clients who have been harmed by others' misconduct.

Ben has extensive experience in appellate litigation and has active appeals pending in state and federal courts throughout the nation. He has secured successful results for his clients before the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Second, Eighth, and Ninth Circuits and numerous state appellate courts. Ben also maintains an active practice outside the appellate arena. He has represented clients in cases involving pensions, securities, and consumer-protection law, among other subjects.

Before joining the firm, Ben worked as a Legal Fellow of the ACLU Drug Law Reform Project, litigating cases related to drug policy and civil rights. He also served as a clerk to two federal appellate judges: the Honorable Betty Binns Fletcher of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Honorable Diana E. Murphy of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Outside of work, Ben enjoys spending time with his wife, daughters, and extended family.
