SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

"Sing to the LORD,
praise the LORD,
For he has rescued the life of the poor
from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

PSALM:

Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

SECOND READING:

But the gift is not like the transgression.
For if by that one person's transgression the many died,
how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ
overflow for the many. (Rom 5:12-15)

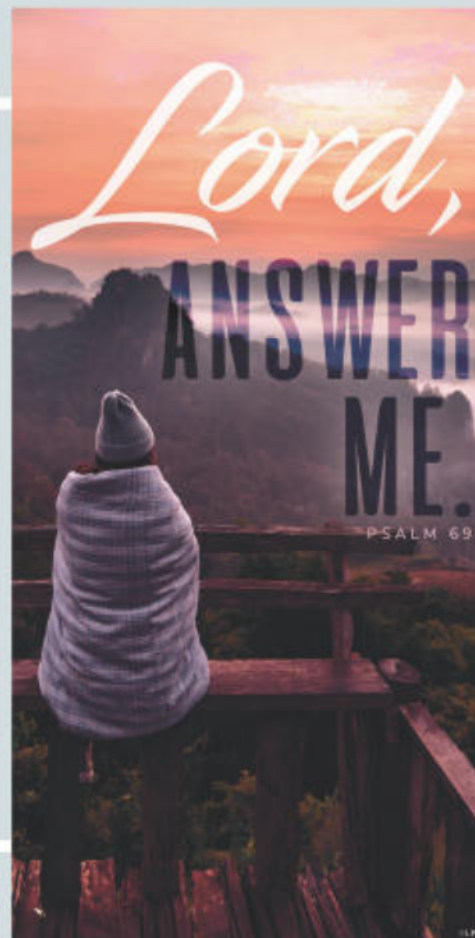

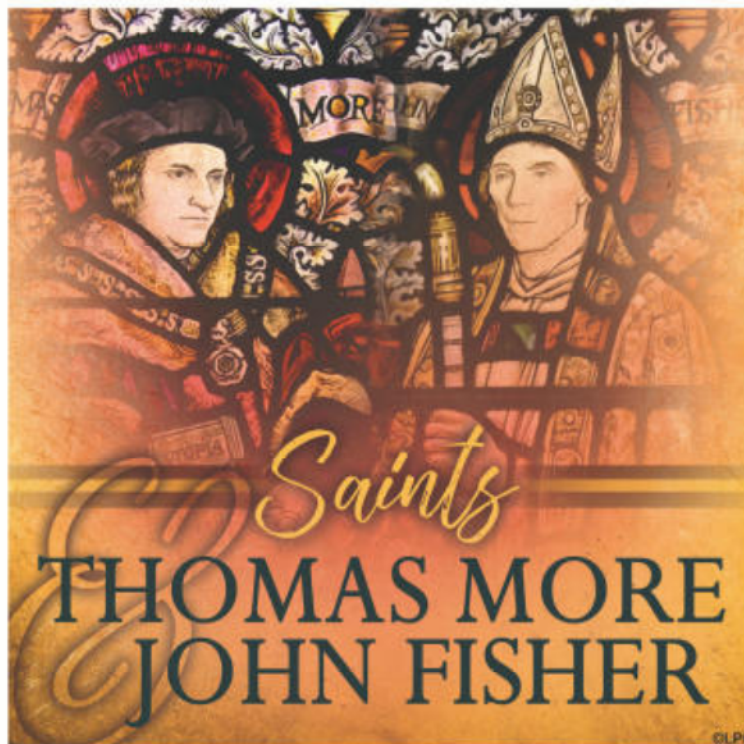

GOSPEL:

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others
I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." (Mt 10:32)

REFLECT

FIRST READING

We hear how the prophet Jeremiah turned to God as he struggled mentally and emotionally to remain faithful to his call. When do you find yourself turning to God in prayer?

SECOND READING

Paul speaks of Adam and Christ to describe God's gift of salvation to all who believe. What do you find compelling in Paul's argument?

GOSPEL READING

Jesus forewarns his disciples that following him will involve risks and even persecution. Where do you experience risk and/or ridicule as a person of faith?

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus knows that the challenges a disciple of the Gospel will face in the world are real. He tells all of us point blank, "Do not be afraid." There are many things we can fear as we attempt to live the Gospel: unpopularity, being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. Many folks know that their faith calls them to live life more deliberately and radically but are cowards when it comes to putting it into practice. We easily justify sticking with the "acceptable" norms with which we are accustomed. These only serve to keep us stuck and mired in mediocrity. The Gospel — given flesh by the very presence of Christ — seeks to stretch, challenge, and change us. We do not have to fear anything, even death. Sometimes, living with our fears brings us a sadly disordered sense of comfort. Maybe what we really fear above all else is change.
