

Supporting Aboriginal Youth Transitions

Supporting Aboriginal Youth Transitions - Getting "To and Through" High School

A Conversation with Parents and Families of Aboriginal Students

Date/Time: October 29th, 2015

10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Location: Hamilton Regional Indian Centre, 34 Ottawa St. N

Why You Should Attend?

Learn more through group discussion with parents and family members of Aboriginal students about strategies to support HWDSB's Aboriginal youth.

Find out about

- What school and community supports are available
- How we can work in partnership to support Aboriginal student success
- What pathways are available for your child
- Discovering "your story" through an interactive activity
- Parent/family/caregiver anxiety vs. student anxiety
- Navigating the school system and where to start

Ask questions and share your thoughts.

To register, please contact Dr. Jenny Kay Dupuis, HWDSB's Aboriginal Community Liaison at 905-527-5092, ext. 2464 or jdupuis@hwdsb.on.ca.

A light snack will be served. Bus tickets are available upon request.

