

#FactsMatter: Immigration Explained

No human being is illegal.

Phrases such as “illegal immigrant” and “illegal alien” replace complex legal circumstances with an assumption of guilt. They effectively criminalize the personhood of migrants, instead of describing the legality of their actions.

It is not a crime for an undocumented person to remain in the United States. “As a general rule, it is not a crime for a movable alien to remain in the United States.”

It is a violation of federal immigration law to remain in the country without legal authorization, but this violation is punishable by civil penalties, not criminal.

Immigration is not one size fits all.

Most undocumented immigrants cannot simply “get legal” and “be a citizen” by filling out paperwork or paying a fee.

The right way to immigrate was at one time to simply show up. Processing at Ellis Island involved health inspections and naturalization.

- Many of our ancestors would not have qualified under today’s immigration laws.
- Many European immigrants benefited from “amnesty,” such as the 1929 Registry Act.

A border wall would be an ineffective immigration restriction.

An estimated 40% of all undocumented immigrants were visa holders, which means they entered the country legally.

Higher immigration is associated with lower crime rates

- Between 1990 and 2013, the foreign-born share of the U.S. population increased from 7.9 percent to 13.1 percent and the number of unauthorized immigrants increased from 3.5 million to 11.2 million.
- During the same period, the violent crime rate declined 48 percent—which included falling rates of aggravated assault, robbery, rape, and murder. The property crime rate fell 41 percent, including declining rates of motor vehicle theft, larceny/robbery, and burglary.

DACA Fact Sheet

What is DACA?

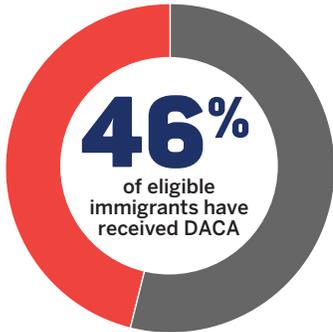

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, or DACA, is a Department of Homeland Security policy that allows for certain undocumented Americans to have their deportations delayed and obtain a temporary work permit.

To be eligible, a person must have been age 30 or younger as of 2012, enrolled in or graduated from school, and not have a felony conviction. For additional qualifications, visit the official USCIS website. Individuals must submit to a biometrics and background check, and pay $495 in fees as part of their application. DACA lasts for two years, and each renewal (which costs an additional $495) is not guaranteed.

DACA Recipients CANNOT	DACA Recipients CAN
DACA recipients cannot receive amnesty, a path to citizenship, or legalization.	DACA recipients can get a temporary stay against their deportation for two years at a time.
DACA recipients cannot vote.	DACA recipients can apply for driver's licenses in some states. The licenses are marked that they cannot be used for federal purposes, like voting.
DACA recipients cannot receive any federal benefits, like Social Security, college financial aid, or food stamps.	DACA recipients are required to pay federal income taxes.

What are the results of DACA?

Because of DACA, 886,814 of the potentially eligible 1,932,000 undocumented Americans had their applications accepted.

A survey of 1,308 DACA recipients showed:

- 95% | are currently working or in school
- 63% | got a better paying job
- 54% | bought their first car
- 48% | got a job with better working conditions
- 12% | bought their first home
