

Fairs & Expos Feature Articles

One of the duties of the IAFE Committees is to submit three articles per year to Fairs & Expos. We rely on these articles to not only fill reserved space in the magazine, but to also help our members learn something from your experiences.

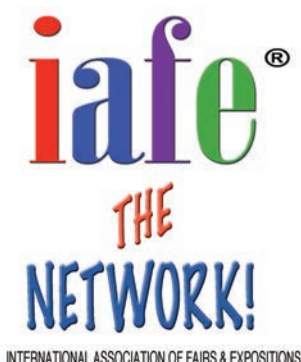

If you are interested in volunteering to write an article, all you need to do is choose a deadline date (Jan. 15, March 15, May 15, July 15, Sept. 15, or Nov. 15) and get to work. If at any time, you find yourself unable to fulfill your obligation, please let the committee or Rebekah Lee know as soon as possible so that we can find another committee member to write an article.

Stick to a topic related to your committee, but don't worry if you aren't sure what to write about just yet. Feel free to ask your fellow committee members for their input either at this meeting or via our listserv once you return home from Convention.

Keep in mind that if you are working toward your Certified Fair Executive (CFE) designation, you will receive points for writing an article.
