A FULL YEAR OF BUSINESS COACHING + MASTERMIND RETREATS TO HELP YOU CONNECT, LEARN AND THRIVE

Dear Christian mom entrepreneur,

Is 2016 your year to THRIVE in your business, ministry or personal life? I have a feeling there are abundant blessings ahead for you - and that now is the time to take that next step and grow. So if you're ready to embrace the joys and challenges that come with growth, then I invite you to THRIVE with me this year.

Introducing: Thrive Together!

A Yearlong Private Coaching Experience and Small Group Mastermind

This is an exclusive opportunity for Christian moms who are starting or growing a business or ministry to CONNECT, LEARN and THRIVE together in 2015!

(There are only 6 spots available, so I wanted to let you know about it first. It's only open right now for current and former clients along with members of the Sisterhood and a few other ladies who have expressed interest.)

What would it be like to Thrive Together?

Any time we experience growth, the first steps can be messy and confusing. (One of my coaches used to say, "When you plant a seed, the first thing that comes up is the dirt!") But you have to take those first steps if you want to change something in your business - ANYTHING in your business! And it's so much easier when you have someone to walk with you.

The Overnight Success is a Myth

You know as well as I do that there is no such thing as an overnight success. If you want to thrive in your business or ministry, you have to do the work. You have to take small - imperfect - steps every day. And you have to make decisions and create habits that will lead you where you want to go.

It takes time to grow a business. And it takes a commitment to nurture it and let it flourish.

What I've realized over the years is that the women who experience the most significant growth when working with me in private coaching have two things in common:

- 1. They are in it for the long haul. They work with me for six months to a year or longer because they know that it takes time to create content and shift mindsets and build habits.
- 2. They rely on one another. They understand the value of creating a real support system of like-minded people to help them succeed.

So the Thrive Together experience is designed to give you what I know works best - a full year of support from me and a small group of fellow Christian mom entrepreneurs!

The Thrive Together experience includes:

[Business Coaching + 2 Live Mastermind Retreats + A Full Year of Support]

Private Coaching and Strategy Calls (Value $2500)

Work with me one-on-one in a monthly private mentoring session, 45 minutes via phone (10 monthly calls excluding August and December). This is your opportunity to brainstorm with me on your offerings and ask me to help map out your growth strategy, build your team or outsource your tasks, review your website, edit your blog posts and sales pages, teach you to develop information products so you can create a passive income, share new tools and technology, and motivate you to stay the course. The coaching experience completely customized to YOUR needs and is 100% confidential.

Life Line Calls (Value $500)

Having a crisis that can't wait until your next regularly scheduled coaching call? You'll have two 15-minute calls to use when you need them most for quick brainstorming or decision making.

Private Email Access (Value: Priceless!)

While I don't teach or coach on lengthy or complex issues via email, I can certainly help you move forward in between our calls. You can share as much or as little as you want with me via my personal email address and ask for my feedback. (Some clients have asked me to review every page of their website and every email they create for a campaign!) I only offer this level of support to private coaching clients because it takes time to craft a thoughtful response, share appropriate resources, and point you in the right direction. I get emails and calls every week from strangers who want my input on marketing and strategy and business ideas. But because I've gotten pretty good at saying no to everyone who's just looking for "free advice" I have the time to spend giving you my most well crafted feedback.

Two Live Mastermind Meetings (Value $1,000)

You get a seat at the table where 6 fabulous women (you're one of them!) will spend the day getting feedback, creating strategies and experiencing business breakthroughs! There is something about a small group mastermind that brings clarity and momentum into your business! Meet with me and a select group of Christian mom entrepreneurs live and in person twice per year for an intense full day mastermind session. We'll work, laugh, cry and pray together as we dig in deep to solve problems and map out the next steps for you in your business or ministry. You'll leave feeling energized and knowing exactly what to do over the next six months. Plus, you'll have a circle of new friends who you've met IRL (in real life) to share the journey with!

(Thrive Mastermind Meetings will be held in Spring and Fall 2016 in Virginia Beach, Va. Specific dates TBD based on member availability.)
