

ACTIVITY SHEET

EPISODE 19: WEATHER REPORT

ACTIVITY 1

Read the situation and choose the correct form of the participial adjective.

1. The documentary screened on the ABC yesterday showed the latest discoveries about obesity. It was interesting / interested and kept the audience interesting / interested.
2. The lectures on Egyptian archaeology are enjoyable. The professor is inspiring / inspired. It is obvious that he is inspiring / inspired by the topic.
3. The student did not understand the confusing / confused enrolment form, but when advised by the counsellor was further confusing / confused.
4. It was a long and exhausting / exhausted exam. The students left the auditorium exhausting / exhausted but pleased.
5. The campaigners for the environment were disappointing / disappointed when the report was handed down in parliament. The disappointing / disappointed conclusions only confirmed the disinterest in the issues.
6. The swimming competitions always attract a lot of interest at the Olympics. The rivalry between the nations is exciting / excited to watch. The exciting / excited spectators are always fully entertained.
7. It was not so much the shocking / shocked levels of air pollution to which the scientists were responding, but rather the shocking / shocked effects on children.
8. The new movie was amusing / amused but, gauging from the reaction, not all the viewers were amusing / amused by the odd cartoon characters.
9. The food festival in Sydney is unique, attracting the best chefs from around the world. The cuisine is always very satisfying / satisfied much to the delight of the satisfying / satisfied chefs.
10. The overwhelming / overwhelmed survivors of the hurricane that struck the coast at night were heartened by the overwhelming / overwhelmed response of concerned citizens.

ACTIVITY 2

Put your learning about present and past participles into practise by choosing the correct word so that the following sentences are grammatically correct.

Question 1: The _____ sportsmen were able to complete the marathon in record time.

Answer:
a. exhausting
b. exhaustive
c. exhausted

Question 2: Watching the evening news is sometimes _____.

Answer:
a. frightened
b. frightening
c. frightens

Question 3: The scientist became quite _____ when his experiments disproved his theory.

Answer:
a. frustrated
b. frustrate
c. frustrating

Question 4: It will be an _____ soccer match because the teams are equally matched.

Answer:
a. excited
b. excites
c. exciting

Question 5: They were _____ when the cinema cancelled the feature film.

Answer:
a. annoying
b. annoyed
c. annoys

Question 6: The _____ students quickly ran for cover when lightning struck the tree.

Answer:
a. frightened
b. frightening
c. frightens

Question 7: A very _____ sport is rock climbing.

Answer:
a. terrifyingly
b. terrifying
c. terrified

Question 8: I think waiting for a late train is rather _____.

Answer:
a. boring
b. bored
c. boredom

Question 9: The family was _____ to hear the news of their grandfather's passing.

Answer:
a. shocks
b. shocked
c. shocking

Question 10: I find swimming in the ocean quite _____.

Answer:
a. relaxed
b. relaxes
c. relaxing

ANSWERS ACTIVITY 1

1. The documentary screened on the ABC yesterday showed the latest discoveries about obesity. It was interesting and kept the audience interested.
2. The lectures on Egyptian archaeology are enjoyable. The professor is inspiring. It is obvious that he is inspired by the topic.
3. The student did not understand the confusing enrolment form, but when advised by the counsellor was further confused.
4. It was a long and exhausting exam. The students left the auditorium exhausted but pleased.
5. The campaigners for the environment were disappointed when the report was handed down in parliament. The disappointing conclusions only confirmed the disinterest in the issues.
6. The swimming competitions always attract a lot of interest at the Olympics. The rivalry between the nations is exciting to watch. The excited spectators are always fully entertained.
7. It was not so much the shocking levels of air pollution to which the scientists were responding, but rather the shocking effects on children.
8. The new movie was amusing but, gauging from the reaction, not all the viewers were amused by the odd cartoon characters.
9. The food festival in Sydney is unique, attracting the best chefs from around the world. The cuisine is always very satisfying much to the delight of the satisfied chefs.
10. The overwhelmed survivors of the hurricane that struck the coast at night were heartened by the overwhelming response of concerned citizens.

ANSWERS ACTIVITY 2

1. The exhausted sportsmen were able to complete the marathon in record time.
2. Watching the evening news is sometimes frightening.
3. The scientist became quite frustrated when his experiments disproved his theory.
4. It will be an exciting soccer match because the teams are equally matched.
5. They were annoyed when the cinema cancelled the feature film.
6. The frightened students quickly ran for cover when lightning struck the tree.
7. A very terrifying sport is rock climbing.
8. I think waiting for a late train is rather boring.
9. The family was shocked to hear the news of their grandfather's passing.
10. I find swimming in the ocean quite relaxing.