

American Institute of Pakistan Studies

Meeting National Needs by Developing US Expertise, Research, and Training

- Mission and Relevance to South Asia Expertise
- Outreach
- Linkages with Domestic and Overseas IHEs
- IHE linkages Implementation Challenges

American Institute of Pakistan Studies

Professional Development Opportunities and Training

- Domestic Opportunities
 - Lectures
 - Workshops and Scholarly Conferences
 - Scholar Exchange and Mentoring Programs
- Overseas Opportunities
 - Lectures
 - Workshop Series and Scholarly Conferences
 - Fellowships
 - Language Program

Relationship with NRCs

- AIPS-Berkeley Urdu Language Program In Pakistan
 - With US Embassy funding, UC Berkeley NRC and AIPS collaboration has hosted 30 Urdu students since fall of 2014
- Community Colleges pilot program
 - With US Embassy funding, UTexas at Austin and AIPS have brought 3 college Principals from Pakistan to Austin Community Colleges to expose them to research opportunities and teaching pedagogy
- Fulbright Orientation Program for Pakistan
 - University of Wisconsin-Madison

American Institute of Pakistan Studies

U.S. Personnel Contact Information

- Farhat Haq, President Elect, AIPS
 - Farhat@monmouthcollege.edu
- Laura Hammond, US Director, AIPS
 - aips@pakistanstudies-aips.org