

2019 – 2020 IGNITE Program Objectives

1. Participant will describe four ways to build a successful neonatal therapy program.
2. Participant will define two theories of practice relevant to neonatal therapy.
3. Participant will define the integrated model of neonatal therapy as a model of care delivery in the NICU.
4. Participant will describe the five components that make up the FENNS framework for practice in neonatal therapy.
5. Participant will describe the appropriate assessments for the following systems: family, environment, neuromotor, neurobehavior and sensory.
6. Participant will describe 3 appropriate interventions for the following areas: family, environment, neuromotor, neurobehavior and sensory.