MEET YOUR MENTORS

Chrysty Sturdivant
OTR, CLC, CNT
Chrysty Sturdivant is a neonatal occupational therapist currently practicing at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, Texas.

Chrysty is Vice President of the National Association of Neonatal Therapists, as well as the conference co-chair and is a member of the NANT Professional Collaborative.

Chrysty’s dedication and passion for the advancement of neonatal therapy is exemplary. She is a wife, mother and grandmother.

Sandra Carroll
OTR, CLC, CNT
Sandra Carroll is currently a neonatal occupational therapist and NICU neonatal therapy supervisor at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, Texas.

She is a member of the National Association of Neonatal Therapists and the American Occupational Therapy Association. In 2008, she obtained the designation of Advanced Competency in Developmental Care by the National Association of Neonatal Nurses, and has also been awarded the Neonatal Developmental Care Specialist Designation by NANN. Sandra lives in Dallas, Texas with her husband and two daughters.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF NEONATAL THERAPISTS
Post Office Box 531790
Cincinnati OH 45253-1790
866-999-5524
info@neonataltherapists.com

https://www.IgniteNeonatalMentoringProgram.com
©2019. All Rights Reserved. Ignite Neonatal Mentoring Program National Association of Neonatal Therapists
What to Expect

IGNITE INCLUDES:

- On-Ramp Resource Pack
- 13 online peer-reviewed training modules
- 12 Guidance Calls with mentors
- Access to all content as it’s in exclusive online resource area
- Private Facebook group
- High quality printable tools to go with each session
- Program test and 15 contact hours 1.5 CEUs (7.5 hours or 0.75 CEUs for each part) for completed trainings
- Multidisciplinary guest presenters

When you finally receive the support, structure and guidance you need, you will experience momentum like never before. Instead of feeling stuck you will have reliable resources at your fingertips that keep you on track.

YOU WILL EXPERIENCE:

- Connection vs isolation
- Confidence
- Momentum
- Structure and guidelines in place for ongoing successful practice
- Relief that your practice is consistent with the standards NANT defines for neonatal therapy

What You Will Learn
13 MONTH PROGRAM
May through May

Part I

- On-Ramp Module
- Defining Neonatal Therapy (NT)
- Training Module #01
  - Implementing a Successful Neonatal Therapy Program
- Training Module #02
  - Theories & Models of Practice in the NICU
- Training Module #03
  - FENNS-Family & Environment
- Training Module #04
  - The Neurobehavioral System
- Training Module #05
  - The Neuromotor System
- Training Module #06
  - The Sensory System
- Training Module #07
  - The Neurobehavioral System Assessment & Intervention

Part II

- Training Module #08
  - Family Assessment & Intervention
- Training Module #09
  - Neuromotor Assessment & Interventions
- Training Module #10
  - Environment & Sensory Assessment & Interventions
- Training Module #11
  - Feeding Basics in the NICU
- Training Module #12
  - Putting it All Together, Neonatal Therapy Interventions
- Training Module #13
  - Instrumental Feeding Assessments & Managing Dysphagia in the NICU

There was a time when we, as neonatal therapists, were alone – without connection, resources and validation. A time when we had to create every single nuance of our programs without guidance. That time is over.

What You Will Learn

13 MONTH PROGRAM
May through May

Part I

- On-Ramp Module
- Defining Neonatal Therapy (NT)
- Training Module #01
  - Implementing a Successful Neonatal Therapy Program
- Training Module #02
  - Theories & Models of Practice in the NICU
- Training Module #03
  - FENNS-Family & Environment
- Training Module #04
  - The Neurobehavioral System
- Training Module #05
  - The Neuromotor System
- Training Module #06
  - The Sensory System
- Training Module #07
  - The Neurobehavioral System Assessment & Intervention

Part II

- Training Module #08
  - Family Assessment & Intervention
- Training Module #09
  - Neuromotor Assessment & Interventions
- Training Module #10
  - Environment & Sensory Assessment & Interventions
- Training Module #11
  - Feeding Basics in the NICU
- Training Module #12
  - Putting it All Together, Neonatal Therapy Interventions
- Training Module #13
  - Instrumental Feeding Assessments & Managing Dysphagia in the NICU

There was a time when we, as neonatal therapists, were alone – without connection, resources and validation. A time when we had to create every single nuance of our programs without guidance. That time is over.

When you finally receive the support, structure and guidance you need, you will experience momentum like never before. Instead of feeling stuck you will have reliable resources at your fingertips that keep you on track.

YOU WILL EXPERIENCE:

- Connection vs isolation
- Confidence
- Momentum
- Structure and guidelines in place for ongoing successful practice
- Relief that your practice is consistent with the standards NANT defines for neonatal therapy

https://www.IgniteNeonatalMentoringProgram.com