The Ignatian Solidarity Network stands with the Pope, the U.S. Catholic Bishops, and the U.S. Jesuits in asking for immigration policies that support family unity, provide a pathway to citizenship for Dreamers, and promote humane and just treatment of those who migrate. We also call on Congress to rethink policy proposals that unnecessarily militarize the border and increase the vulnerability of individuals fleeing their countries in search of safety.

When Pope Francis addressed Congress in 2015, he said:

“In recent centuries, millions of people came to this land to pursue their dream of building a future in freedom. We, the people of this continent, are not fearful of foreigners, because most of us were once foreigners... We must not be taken aback by their numbers, but rather view them as persons, seeing their faces and listening to their stories, trying to respond as best we can to their situation. To respond in a way which is always humane, just and fraternal.”
