God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble. Psalm 46.1

The Lord is my rock and my fortress. Psalm 16.2

The term narcissism comes from the Greek myth of Narcissus, a handsome Greek youth who rejected the desperate advances of the nymph Echo. These advances eventually led Narcissus to fall in love with his own reflection in a pool of water.

Ps. 20.7 Some boast in chariots and some in horses, But we will boast in the name of the Lord, our God

THREE PARTS TO PSALM 46

1 God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble.2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change And though the mountains slip into the heart of the sea;3 Though its waters roar and foam, Though the mountains quake at its swelling pride.
Selah.

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, The holy dwelling places of the Most High.5 God is in the midst of her, she will not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns.6 The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered; He raised His voice, the earth melted.7 The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Selah.

8 Come, behold the works of the Lord, Who has wrought desolations in the earth.9 He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariots with fire.10 " Cease striving and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."11 The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Selah.
