hebel

Basic meaning:

"puff of air" - "a breath" - "a vapor"

"The essential quality to which 'hebel' refers is lack of permanence rather than lack of worth or value..it is air-like, fleeting, transitory, and elusive rather than meaningless."

(K. A. Farmer)

VANITY

Basic meaning:

“something that is vain, empty, or valueless”
(Webster)

“In English, ‘vanity’ means ‘hollow, empty, worthless, pointless, without any real value,’ at most, ‘trivial’.”
(D. C. Fredericks)
