INTRODUCTION

Finding good resources on biblical issues can be a difficult task. Often believers want to study a certain topic or issue but do not know where to start or where to find good books. That is why the pastors and staff of Indian Hills Community Church have composed this recommended booklist to help the lay member (and pastors) find resources that are readable and trustworthy. The following are characteristics of this booklist:

- 1) Easily Defined Categories. There are four main categories to this list — General Reference, Old Testament, New Testament, and Theology and Critical Issues.
- 2) A Rating System. The books in each list are numbered in order of preference. Those works that have a * before them are highly recommended.
- 3) Readable. This list is geared with the lay member in mind. Though some books are more challenging than others, we have tried to avoid those that are technical and require an advanced knowledge of Greek and Hebrew.
- 4) Theologically Sound. The books selected are those that the pastors and staff of Indian Hills Community Church believe are theologically sound.

Also, since one's millennial perspective can greatly effect one's interpretation of Scripture, we have indicated, when needed, whether an author is Premillennial (Pre), Amillennial (A), or Postmillennial (Post). Since we hold to a Dispensational Premillennial viewpoint on Scripture, most of the works (including all prophetic ones) are from a Dispensational perspective.

Purchasing Books

Most of the books on this list can be ordered through our Sound Words bookstore. If you are interested in buying a book, write us at Sound Words, 1000 South 84th Street, Lincoln, NE 68510, or call us at (402) 483-4541. Our Fax # is (402) 483-6716. Give us the name of the book and the author. We will then check on the availability of the book and its price.

We have also supplied a listing of used and out-of-print bookstores. If a book has gone out of print try contacting one of these bookstores or a Christian library.

It is our desire to help Christians grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. If you have any questions concerning this booklist or any other matter, please feel free to contact us.
