The Unfailing Love of God

By Gordie Coffin

"The Love of God," written and composed by Frederick Lehman is my wife's favorite hymn. The third stanza of the hymn compels us to ponder God's character, as it paints a picture of His love for us:

*Could we with ink the ocean fill,
And were the skies of parchment made,
Were every stalk on earth a quill,
And every man a scribe by trade;
To write the love of God above
Would drain the ocean dry;
Nor could the scroll contain the whole,
Though stretched from sky to sky.*

Lehman's hymn expresses the vastness of God's love, yet the beauty of these lyrics does not explain why God's love is so remarkable. God's love is remarkable because it reconciles two conflicting truths: 1. We are utterly sinful and 2. God is infinitely holy.

The dichotomy between man's sin and God's holiness is a problem that we cannot resolve. Our good works to bridge this gap cannot pay for the debt accrued by our sin. In fact, God refers to such deeds as "filthy garments" (Is. 64:6), as they are offered as bribes to account for a debt we could never pay. God's justice and righteousness demand a satisfactory payment for sin.

The problem is that sin against an infinite God requires an infinite punishment. Eternity in hell is the requirement. What a miserable truth.

In Romans 5:6-8, the apostle Paul provides the answer to this seemingly insurmountable scenario:

For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

What great news! While we were in our helpless, sinful condition, God provided a way. The way is Jesus Christ and it is in Christ that God most fully demonstrates His love toward us. We would be on our way to an eternal hell if it were not for God's love. Praise the Lord!

Though Lehman's lyrics may paint a picture of God's love, the depth of His love is grasped in the gospel. When we confront the seriousness of our sin and consider the price God paid to rescue us, we are compelled to praise God for His unconditional, unwavering love.

Parking Safety

The fire department, police, and ambulance services have requested that parking next to the church doors be prohibited during church services, Sunday school, Titus Tuesday, Awana, and other church events. Should an emergency arise, EMS workers need the entrances to be clear of vehicles. This includes the large canopy and all other entrances. Please park in the parking lot during church services and activities.

Dr. Jason Lisle Speaking at Men's Seminar

Dr. Jason Lisle is a Christian astrophysicist who writes and speaks on various topics relating to science and the defense of the Christian faith. While working on his Master's, and Ph.D. in astrophysics at the University of Colorado in Boulder, he used the SOHO spacecraft to analyze the surface of the sun, and made numerous discoveries, including the detection of giant cell boundaries.

Raised in a Christian home, Dr. Lisle was taught to respect the absolute authority and accuracy of the Bible, and to be discerning about what is taught in secular schools. These critical thinking skills helped him spot fallacious arguments often used to supposedly prove evolution.

"The origins debate is a matter of competing worldviews," says Dr. Lisle. "Worldviews control how we interpret the evidence; thus, creationists and evolutionists can draw different conclusions from the same evidence. Most scientists are not consciously aware of their own worldview, and how it influences the conclusions they draw."

This realization made it easier for Dr. Lisle to see that intelligent scientists, including his own professors, can draw erroneous conclusions when it comes to an issue of origins science, even while they are brilliant and successful in their own narrow field of research. Dr. Lisle is convinced that when the evidence is interpreted in a consistent fashion, it consistently confirms biblical creation.

Specializing in the defense of Genesis, Dr. Lisle began working in full-time apologetics. He has written numerous articles and books on the topic. His most well-known book, The Ultimate Proof of Creation, demonstrates that biblical creation is the only logical possibility for origins.

Dr. Lisle also does theoretical research and has contributed to the field of general relativity. He is interested in science and enjoys reading books on a wide range of scientific topics. Astronomy and physics have been areas of special interest. One of his favorite hobbies is viewing the beautiful night sky through a telescope.

Dr. Lisle will be speaking at the Men's Conference on Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16 and at all three services (including Sunday School) on Sunday, February 17.

Family News

DEATH

Ross Johnson, father of Peggy Cline and Sandy Johnson, died February 1, 2019.

THANK YOU

Thank you to our church family for all the prayers, cards, expressions of sympathy, memorial gifts, and gifts of food to our family at the passing of Marvin Moser. You have been an encouragement to us. Special thanks to Aaron Nicholson for your clear message of salvation at the funeral and to the Ladies Food Ministry for the wonderful luncheon after the funeral. We appreciate each one that brought and served food. Thank you to Vince Ganshorn and Kathleen Krieger for the music that glorified God. We were blessed. Thank you also to the media crew: Zane Parks, Jake Krieger, and Andrew Thomas. By God's grace, the funeral service and luncheon were a great testimony of God's church. With grateful hearts—The family of Marvin Moser

THANK YOU

Thank you to our Lord, Jesus Christ, for His continuous care for us, and to our church family for the prayers, support, and love. My kidneys and lungs are clear. "The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much" (James 5:16). In Christ's name—Gerry and Joyce Pool

Please call the church at 402-483-4541 and notify Curt Kuster of hospitalizations or births.
