Chris Mueller to Speak at the Hills

Since 1979, Chris Mueller has been serving in pastoral ministry. At Grace Community Church, he served in various roles including the junior high pastor, the college pastor, and as pastoral assistant to John MacArthur. In Spokane, Washington, Chris served as a teaching pastor for 11 years, followed by several years building, leading, and overseeing a church-based ministry training center in Phoenix, Arizona. In 2006, Chris became the teaching pastor at Faith Bible Church in Murrieta, California.

Over the years, Chris has also served as an adjunct professor at Talbot, The Master's Seminary, and Phoenix Seminary. That work flows out of his strong passion to train men for ministry. At the core, Chris believes that a healthy local church is the most effective training environment from which to raise up men of God.

A graduate of Biola College, Chris earned a Master of Divinity in Bible Exposition from Talbot Seminary in 1982 and a Doctorate of Ministry from Master's Seminary in 2018. He and his wife, Jean, have two sons, Matthew, who is married to Danielle, and Daniel, who is married to Breanna. Chris and Jean also have three grandsons, Ryker, Finn, and Maverick.

Chris will be speaking at the 2020 Men's Conference (February 28-29) and preaching on Sunday, March 1.

Piano Player Needed

A piano player is needed on the second Sunday of every month (3:00 p.m.) at FallBrook retirement home in northwest Lincoln. This Sunday service includes singing about 5 or 6 traditional hymns and then 15 minutes of Bible teaching. Contact Tom Price (402-792-9331 or mathmanprice@gmail.com) if you are available to help in this way.

2019 Giving Receipts

By February 1, your 2019 donation receipt should arrive. Please notify the church of any discrepancies or if you did not receive a giving receipt.
