INDIAN HILLS COMMUNITY CHURCH

July 16, 2017

Welcome to Indian Hills where we still believe and teach the old, old message—Jesus saves!

Having a precise understanding of what it means to believe in Jesus has never been more critical.

Sadly, many churches have reduced Christianity to a health-and-wealth, prosperity, or best-life-now plan. How it must grieve God to see the many led astray by this foolishness.

The message of the cross is clearly presented in the Bible. Beginning with Genesis and ending with Revelation, we learn of man's sinfulness, Jesus' righteousness, and God's justice and mercy.

God's love required Jesus, His only beloved Son, to die for our sins. When we repent of our sins and place our faith in Jesus' death and resurrection, we are saved from the penalty of hell and brought into God's eternal family.

What a gift—eternal blessings in heaven! Those who know what it means to be God's child would never trade it in for the prosperity, health-and-wealth, or best-life-now gospel.

Like the first hymn we sing

this morning, we long for a thousand tongues to sing the glories of our God.

His Purpose, My Purpose

“Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you serve” (Colossians 3:23-24).

As we go about our daily business, we must keep in mind that we are to be about His business. May God help us to live our lives in His Truth. Although we sin and fall short many times, may we never lose sight of the goal: to live for the Lord with nothing held back.

Whatever He asks us to do, may we do it with all our strength, and never look back with regret. May the Lord help us to be fully engaged with His purpose for our lives.

Quote

“There, but for the grace of God, go I”—John Bradford, Reformer who was martyred (burned at the stake) under Queen Mary's reign on July 1, 1555 at the age of 45.

Speaking at the Christian Businessman's Lunch

Andy Frahm

What will you talk about at the Businessman's lunch?

My plan is to give some background on my 20-year career in investment management, and speak to some basic biblical principles on money and investing.

I will use this brief discussion to lead in to a gospel presentation and then an exhortation to be investing our time, energy, and resources in things that ultimately matter for eternity.

By weaving in several Bible verses and examples during the discussion I hope to give not only a clear explanation of the gospel for any unbelievers in the audience, but also encouragement and exhortation for believers, in terms of our priorities, having proper perspective, and ultimately finishing the race well.

A most heartfelt thank you to everyone who has served the Lord with us in the Girls of Grace camp ministry these past eight years. It is because of your hard work and dedication to the lives of our young ladies that each camp has been a safe, fun, and godly soul-nurturing environment. Also, thanks to all who have donated money; bought baked goods, cookies, pies, and vegetable plants; prayed for the camp leaders, their preparations, and the days we camped; and sent their children to camp with us. We are so blessed to have been a part of this particular ministry and look forward to continuing to serve in this wonderful body of believers!—Jeff and Denise Harford
