WEEKLY HALACHA - R’ Mordechai Torczyner, torczyner@torontotorah.com

Can I fulfill matanos le’eyonim and mishloach manos by sending my gifts in advance?

Because the tzedakah given for matanos le’eyonim is meant to be used for Purim needs, some authorities say it should be received on Purim, lest it be spent in advance. Also, some contend that the gift is meant to recall events of the original Purim, on Purim itself. However, most authorities rule that one may deliver matanos le’eyonim in advance, thus ensuring indigent people will have the means to arrange a Purim feast. One certainly may send it to a distribution agent in advance, for distribution on Purim day.

Regarding the mitzvah of mishloach manos, some authorities understand that the purpose of the mitzvah is to increase our goodwill toward each other on Purim itself. Therefore, mishloach manos should be sent, or at least received, on Purim itself.

A MESSAGE FROM THE RAV - PURIM AND AMALEK

"Remember what Amalak did to you on your way out of Egypt." (Deut. 25:17)

If you’re old enough to remember, think back to that fateful day 15 years ago on 9/11. The profound sadness of that day, at least for me, was the stark realization that after all the wars and senseless bloodshed of the 20th century, man was no better in the 21st century than he was in the century prior. We still had so far to go before reaching a utopian era when evil would be destroyed and all men could live together in peace and tolerance.

Why is it so imperative to remember Amalak? Rambam and Ramban both seem to say that our remembering of Amalak is needed in order to galvanize us to action, enabling us to fulfill the mitzvah of destroying whatever remains of Amalak. Without the constant reminder that evil continues to exist within the world, we might easily delude ourselves into thinking that perhaps evil has been vanquished, that we can now beat our swords into ploughshares and be at peace with the entire world. That would be a tragic error, because when one beats his sword into a ploughshare while Amalak is still alive and well, then when he shows up at your doorstep, you will no longer have a weapon with which to defend yourself.

One of the things that divides liberals and conservatives is the way they view the world. Liberals, in their well-intended optimism about the human condition, seek to see only the good in themselves and the world around them. When they see individuals or whole cultures behaving badly and oppressively toward whole segments of their society, such as women and those of another faith, these liberals chalk it up to cultural differences that can easily be corrected through reeducation. These liberals are even willing to risk their own security and their countrymen’s security by opening up their country’s borders to such people with warped and archaic cultural ideologies of hatred, in the hopes that by “westernizing” them and exposing them to the beauty and tolerance of democracy, they will eventually see the light and become more tolerant and less hateful.

While often that hopeful optimism is properly directed, it seems that it’s just as often misplaced. As long as the ultimate redemption of the Messianic Age has not arrived, there will always be evil, and this evil personified is what we call Amalak.

Purim represents those few eras of light for the Jewish people, when historically Amalak was temporarily silenced and suppressed. But both Mordechai and Esther were not naive in their institution of the Purim holiday. Purim does not commemorate the complete and utter annihilation of Amalak and evil from the world, far from it. Rather, it celebrates those relatively rare opportunities in Jewish history to temporarily suppress Amalak until the next iteration comes to either that generation’s children or grandchildren.

Purim affirms that despite the inevitability of the return of Amalak to the world stage, we have to celebrate those times – regardless of their temporary nature – when the Jewish people, goodness, and kindness to all are on the ascent.

Our prayer is that Amalak remain suppressed. But in order for this to be so, we must always remember Amalak. The moment we forget that evil still exists, we will fail to recognize Amalak when he does arrive in our midst, and we will neglect to unproot him from the community. Let us pray that Amalak stays very far from us for many, many years to come, and that our anticipated Age of Messiah is near indeed.

Have a freilichen Purim! - Rabbi Daniel Korobkin

Don’t start making dinner after Megillah reading Wednesday Night. Pre-order a pizza from BAYT Youth ready to take home right after the leining. Large plain Pies are $20 and must be pre-ordered via www.bayt.ca (click on Purim pizza).
Deadline to order is Monday March 21st.
Pizzas will be ready for pick up in the Main Shul Lobby.
BROTHERRHOOD
The Brotherhood has concluded a wonderful year of chesed touching many of our members lives, people in Thornhill and Israel communities. This past year, the Brotherhood contributed over $60,000 to the many BAYT and Israel projects, including programs to the Youth, Teen and University aged groups. We are well known for sponsoring 5 kiddushes each and every Shabbat for our children after various minyanim, including Rabbi Greenberg’s Young Adult Minyan. We contribute and organize the Simchat Torah kiddush, Shlichim Families’ Kiddush, Rabbi Taub Kiddush, Breakfast Programs and others.

This year, 1/3 of our net proceeds from the Simchat Torah kiddush were contributed to One Family Fund to assist families who were murdered by terrorists.

The BAYT Brotherhood has made a commitment to Capital Campaign of $36,000.

We support many events in the shul including Shabbat Itanu, IDWWO and Scholars In Residence.

This year we completed our 15th year of the annual Brotherhood Solidarity Mission to Israel which had 24 participants. Motzei Shabbat,150 people made up of our past members, current yeshiva and seminary students and chayalim joined our current and past Rav and Rebbetzin Korobkin and Taub. Please consider joining the Brotherhood on our next mission December 11-19, 2016.

The BAYT Brotherhood annually sponsors many Youth programming events including Latke Night. Under the leadership of Rabbi Rosenzweig this coming Shavuot we will celebrate our 20th Annual Siyum. You can sign up on line or outside the Simcha suite. We are seeking for a sponsor for the event, so if you are interested, please contact me.

Finally, we would like to thank the Rav and Rebbetzin for their inspiring leadership and thank all of our volunteers who give so much of their valuable time to make the Brotherhood extremely successful.

Craig Guttmann

SISTERHOOD
Sisterhood has been busy since November working on the mishloach manot campaign. A record number of volunteers from all ages helped out this year to make it a huge success. From planning, shopping, ordering, organizing, packaging, shlepping and driving. Here are some fun facts you may not have known about our Purim Campaign:

- 6 committee members
- 655 mishloach manot packages
- 5,240 items to package
- 39 volunteers to package 655 packages in 2.5 hours
- 36 drivers to deliver
- 97 streets on our delivery route
- 655 happy recipients

We could not have done it without our very dedicated committee, Naomi Deutsch, Karen Rosensweig, Tova Segal and Sari Weinberger who oversaw the project from concept to completion. Thank you to the 39 brave volunteers who came out on the Motzei Shabbos with their sleeves rolled up to join our packaging party. Thank you to Karen Zilberberg for arranging the room and Noel and his custodial staff for helping set up and move boxes. Thank you to the minyanim and programs we displaced when we overtook the Library. A special thank you to all those who placed orders through our campaign. The money raised will help fund many programs in our shul during the course of the year.

Yasher Koach to all, it has truly been a communal effort.

BAYT BROTHERHOOD MISSION DECEMBER 2015 - Marcee Rosenzweig

The BAYT Brotherhood Mission December 8th to December 14th, 2015 was a most exciting and productive mission to Israel. The Mission had twenty-one participants and was led, once again, by our Rav and Rebbetzin, Daniel and Karen Korobkin.

As usual, the Mission took us to places and introduced us to people you would be hard pressed to visit and meet on your own. We visited sites in Israel as far north as Haifa and as far south as the border with Gaza! From the Jordan River to the Mediterranean Sea! We met soldiers and citizens, heroes of all ages, and people who are willing to fight for the Land and People of Israel.

Some of the highlights of the mission included: visiting the Naval Base in Haifa and boarding a battle ship; packaging food boxes for the needy at the Yad Eliezer warehouse; dining in a “Blind Experience – Blackout Restaurant” followed by a theatre production performed by blind and deaf actors; visiting Har Hazetim with Aryeh King; visiting former residents of Gush Katif in their new homes in Netzer Chazani and Bnei Dekalim; meeting Nadia Matar at Oz V’Gaon; sampling wine at a boutique winery in the Shomron; hiking through the Ein Ovdat Reserve and Mitzpe Rimon; visiting the Macabim battle sites and having an impromptu session with Yossi Gefen, a resident of Beit Choron (site of a recent terrorist attack at a supermarket).

Every year, thousands of dollars worth of winter coats and clothing are donated by members of the Westmount Shul. We have the privilege of distributing this clothing at the places we visit. Some groups even put in their requests for clothing before we arrive. The joy on the faces of the parents and children who receive the clothes is very special.

This Mission coincided with Chanukah. The group lit candles together every night in the lobby of the hotel. Lighting the candles and singing together in Eretz Yisrael was a very emotional and uplifting experience.

The highlight of every mission is Shabbat with the young adults who are spending their Gap year in various Yeshivot, Seminaries and Universities in Israel, serving in the army, or who have made Aliya. Along with Rabbi Baruch and Malka Taub, we enjoyed our Shabbat meals and Oneg Shabbat singing Zemirot and listening to Divrei Torah from our children.

Every Mission, the Brotherhood sponsors a Motzei Shabbat Melava Malka, hosting families and friends of the BAYT community who have made Aliya. This year we were honoured to have Rabbanit Channah Henkin speak about her son and daughter-in-law who were murdered by Palestinian terrorists this past Succoth, update us on the status of her grandchildren and deliver special Divrei Torah. The evening was completed with a Kumzitz led by Rabbi Korobkin, Cyril Brennan, and Moishe Posner.

Plans for the next mission to Israel have begun! The dates are December 11th to December 19th, 2016. Now is the time to start making plans to join the next BAYT Brotherhood Mission to Israel.

For more information contact Marcee Rosenzweig at marceer@hotmail.com or 905-881-7826

Here is what one of last year’s participants had to say about the mission.
The December 2015 BAYT Mission to Israel was an enlightening experience. I have been on other organized trips plus arranged private tours for my family, but this trip offered a very personal, touching and inspiring experience.

Visiting the Haifa Navy base and the emotional meetings with people whose Emmuna has never been shaken in dealing with the terrible traumas they have lived with, made this trip outstanding. Each day contained special moments such as, lighting the Chanukah candles together at the hotel in Yerusla- layim or davening Kabbalat Shabbat at the Kotel.
