Parsha Questions Haazinu, BY: The Rav
First Aliyah: (32:3) Why is it necessary for Moshe to preface his words by saying that he’s about to invoke the name of Hashem? Second Aliyah: (32:7) How will “your father” speak to you differently from “your elders”? Third Aliyah: (32:17) What are “shedim,” and why are they called “not godly”? Fourth Aliyah: (32:28) Is the “nation without understanding” referring to the Jewish people or someone else? Fifth Aliyah: (32:32) Why are grapes of Sodom used to describe a foolish nation? Sixth Aliyah: (32:40) Why is the non-physical Hashem described as “lifting up His hand to Heaven”? Seventh Aliyah: (32:51) Why does Hashem once again remind Moshe of his sin and why he won’t enter Eretz Yisrael?

Weekly Halachah
R’ Mordechai Torczyner - torczyner@torontotorah.com
May I sit while seifrei torah are carried around the shul on Simchas Torah?
Normally, one is obligated to stand while a sefer torah is carried within his sight, to show honour. However, some do suggest leniencies during hakafos, particularly in light of their length.
Some authorities permit sitting between hakafos, while the seifrei torah are stationary; others even permit sitting after the first circuit of each hakafah; still others permit sitting altogether, contending that a sefer torah carried in a circle is equal to a sefer torah placed on a table. The Chazon Ish was careful to sit only when holding a sefer torah.
It is worth noting that Rav Chaim Brisker would not ask others to take a sefer torah from him; out of respect for the Torah, he only gave it away when someone else asked for it.

ATTENTION BOOK LOVERS: Mark the date!
The next BAYT Book Group meeting will be Sunday, October 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the Simcha Suite. Noted journalist and publisher Bill Gladstone will be our guest speaker and will be speaking on Jewish immigration fiction, featuring the following books on our current list:

- Yuri Suhl, One Foot in America
- Abraham Cahan, The Rise of David Levinsky
- Shirley Faessler, Basket of Apples

There will also be an open discussion of related works. Please join us for a wonderful evening! Miriam and Sharon

IMPORTANT NOTE TO PARENTS

Parents are reminded that they are responsible for their children while on Shul property. Every child must be in a Minyan or with a parent. This is essential for the safety of our children and the protection of Shul property. The Shul will demand reimbursement from any parent whose child is found damaging Shul property.

STROLLERS & CARRIAGES

We have limited space for storage of strollers and baby carriages in the utility room behind the lower floor elevator. Unfortunately, they cannot be stored in the building hallways and lobbies since they present a hazard in the event of a required evacuation. Any strollers found in the hallways will be relocated to the utility room.
