Rav Tomer Ronen

is the Rosh HaYeshiva of Ben Porat Yosef (BPY) Yeshiva in Paramus, NJ. A native of Rechovot, Israel, Rav Ronen initially came to the U.S. to join the faculty of SAR Academy in Riverdale, NY, as both a teacher and junior high school coordinator. He also served as the rabbi and chazzan of the Sephardic Congregation Beit Aharon of Riverdale. Over the course of his tenure at BPY, Rav Ronen has overseen the exponential growth of BPY's enrollment. Ben Porat Yosef features a klal Yisrael approach where Sephardic and Ashkenazic heritage and traditions are taught side by side, and is well known for its successful Hebrew language immersion program. Rav Ronen delivers dynamic energy, hands-on leadership style and a passion for authentic Hebrew language learning. His warmth and enthusiasm set the tone for the entire Ben Porat Yosef experience.
