CHESED CORNER

Visiting the Graves of our Ancestors: Kever Avot

Elul is here. Time is running out

The custom of visiting the gravesites of loved ones during the month of Elul has been observed by many Jews throughout the generations. It is seen as a prelude to Rosh Hashanah, to remembering and recognizing that past is prelude to our present. This custom is difficult if you do not have a car. We are still looking for drivers and people who need transportation.

If you visit loved ones at THE NEW MONTEFIORE CEMETERY on Long Island, one of our members plans to go during the last week in August and has 4 seats available. If interested please email chesed@lss.org and we will provide you with the person's name, email address and phone so that you can make arrangements. Please consider fulfilling this mitzvah and let us know when you plan to visit.

We have requests for people who plan to drive to Cedar Park or Beth El cemeteries in Paramus, NJ, Mount Lebanon Cemetery in Queens and Westchester Hills (aka Stephen Wise Free Synagogue Cemetery) in Hastings-on-Hudson. Please email chesed@lss.org with the name of the cemetery you would like to visit during Elul and we will try to team you up with a driver.
