A young man was on a tour of New York City when he suddenly realized that he was lost. He noticed a policeman nearby and so he asked the officer, “Could you possibly tell me how to get to Carnegie Hall?” “Of course,” replied the policeman, “Practice.”

In the Jewish world, teachers are always emphasizing the need to prepare before we accomplish a goal, whether that is passing a test, or trying out for the baseball team. Martha Graham, the world renowned dancer and choreographer, once said, “I believe that we learn by practice. Whether it means to learn to dance by practicing dancing or to learn to live by practicing living, the principles are the same. In each, it is the performance of a dedicated precise set of acts, physical or intellectual, from which comes shape of achievement, a sense of one’s being, a satisfaction of spirit. One becomes, in some area an athlete of God.”

There are certain observant Jewish students who spend their entire lives studying, but do nothing to make this a better world. In Israel this can be a big problem because they don’t earn a living, don’t support their families, and don’t serve in the army. Most of their lives they “don’t!” The only thing they do is study. Rabbi Shimon ben Halafta, a scholar of the Mishnah and a good friend of Rabbi Judah Hanasi, wrote, “He who studies Torah and does not practice it, is more severely punished than he who never studied the Torah.” In Judaism one might say that the entire reason to study Torah is to practice its teachings, so that we can create a world that will find redemption. The outcome of our study must lead us to perform Godly acts in this world. Salomon ben Yehosua Maimon, a great Lithuanian philosopher and Kabbalist, wrote on this subject as follows, “Whatever light I may receive, I shall always illumine it with the light of reason. My religion enjoins me to think the truth and to practice goodness.”

These profound truths about practice, study and the performance of good deeds, is precisely what we teach our children in our Talmud Torah and in the El Paso Jewish Academy. Teachers, rabbis, boards of directors, and administrators of our Jewish educational institutions must always practice through actions and deeds the principles of Torah. They must ensure that integrity and honesty, kindness and compassion are the guiding lights of their behavior. They must be encouraging and supportive and make sure that we put into practice the highest ideals of Torah. As we experience a “Summer Break” from our formal Jewish education, we will continue to encourage ourselves and our children to read books of Jewish content over the summer, that we ourselves, along with our children, will attend services during the summer, and that we will make sure that in the Fall our students will attend the Academy and the Talmud Torah to receive a wonderful and fulfilling Jewish education which will teach them to put into practice all that the Torah teaches.

I am honored you have selected me to serve as our congregation’s president for the 2015-2017 term, and very excited to build upon the successes of our previous president, Cesar Carrasco. The board and I are ready to introduce new ideas for fundraising, programming and educating “the next generation.” We are on the “right path” and want to continue that momentum.

Our previous administration addressed several important issues which provided us with an improved financial foundation. They were instrumental in the implementation of a new accounting system which has given us multiple benefits such as: improved reporting, budget forecasting, variance monitoring and essentially allowed us to do more with our smaller staff. In addition, this system was integrated into Shulcloud, our website and membership interaction portal to permit even more efficiencies. Another significant achievement was the re-evaluation of our endowment’s management to improve our financial future.

Welcome to our 2015 - 2016 Officers and Board Members of Congregation B’nai Zion

During my tenure, our board will continue to work on the initiatives from the previous administration. Financial transparency, fiscal responsibility and exciting programming are going to remain. Other initiatives related to fundraising and education are going to be priorities as well.

This term I want to see fundraising and social programming elevated to new levels and maintain a larger presence. My goal is for the Shul to be the center of Jewish life, not just a place to worship. Incorporated into that vision, is the importance of focusing on the education of our youth and all congregants to promote “life-long” learning.

Please understand that if you have ideas for fundraising, programming or education, I am available to you. In addition, if there are any suggestions, complaints, compliments – that information is welcome as well. Our Shul is just that - a place for “us.” Let “us” take this time to come together and complete “tikun olam.”

May Hashem grant us strength, peace and success in all our efforts.

Tof Miriam Healing Drum Circle
June 14 at 2:30 PM
Anusim Center, 401 Wallenberg

Ladies, fellow sisters, come and treat yourself to the time & company of other women, for sharing and healing. Since the crossing of the Sea of Reeds, and before, Jewish women have been singing & chanting to the rhythm of the frame drum. The use of voice, rhythm, and music for healing is an ancient tradition. Come experience the spiritual & healing power of the Tof Miriam (Miriam’s drum), and discover the power of the Divine Feminine in yourself, in our Jewish history, and in our Jewish texts. I look forward to seeing you all!

(If you have a hand drum of any kind, a tambourine, a shaker, please bring it! I will also have some hand drums available. This first gathering will be for women only, and no children please, only because it will not be possible to really focus with children running around. Moms, you do deserve a break, to refresh yourselves, which will make you much happier, healthier, mommies -- happy mommies, happy children!)

Blessings,

My name is Elijah Hagins and my Bar Mitzvah will be on August 29, 2015 at B’nai Zion Synagogue. I have enjoyed studying with Rabbi Leon and am very excited for my Bar Mitzvah. I am the oldest child in my family and the first one to have a Bar Mitzvah. This is a special event for my whole family.

I currently attend Lincoln Middle School where I am in the 7th grade. I enjoy school very much and my favorite subjects are Science and Spanish. In my spare time, I enjoy playing sports. I am a member of B’nai Zion’s Kadima group. My favorite activities are the ones that I take part in as a boy scout in Troop 613. Camping, hiking, and community service are the things that I have the most fun doing with my troop. I just earned my Star rank. My ultimate goal is to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout.

Every summer for the past 4 years, I have attended the summer camp at the El Paso Holocaust Museum. My aunt is a docent at the El Paso Holocaust Museum and I also have an aunt who works at the National Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. and travels all over the world educating teachers about how to teach students about the Holocaust. I think it is very important that all generations learn about the Holocaust. My Bar Mitzvah project involves starting a fund for the El Paso Holocaust Museum that will be used to expand their children’s educational center.

It has been a phenomenal ride serving as BZUSY’s 2014-2015 Chapter President. I can honestly state that leading this chapter has been by far one of the most challenging yet rewarding experiences I have ever been a part of. I want to thank my entire executive board, as well as my advisor, Rachel Leon. I would have not been able to accomplish the things I have in this chapter without their support. Mazel Tov to all newly elected board members of BZUSY. I know they will achieve amazing things, and I’m excited to see what they have in store for this upcoming year! Thank you for everything, BZUSY!
