Shabbos Parshas Kedoshim, May 14, 2016

Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein

President Menno Ratzker

You shall not hate your brother in your heart... Do not seek revenge nor bear a grudge against your people! (19:17-18)

Destructive behavior is invariably a result of faulty character traits. If we find ways in which a person has discontinued destructive behavior, we can safely assume that some faulty character traits have been corrected. One of the great pitfalls of life which can effect a person deeply and remain with someone for decades is resentment. In order for a person to move on in life, a person must train himself to let go. In fact, this concept is always mentioned in the meetings of "Alcoholics Anonymous," where one seeks the serenity to accept that which cannot be changed, the courage to change that which can be changed, and the wisdom to know the difference. Trying to change the unchangeable can only lead to exasperation and frustration. Harboring resentment only brings anger, sadness and depression. Ultimately it is acceptance and understanding that in the end brings serenity and tranquility to one's life.

Shabbos Parshas Kedoshim, May 14, 2016

This is actually conveyed in the aforementioned verses of not hating your brother in your heart and not bearing a grudge. How foolish to allow someone you dislike to dwell within you? Do not waste your efforts in futile behavior. Accept people for who they are, let go – move on and realize that you can only do what's right, because it is only your actions and words over which you have control and not their consequences. In the final analysis it is G-d that will decide what the ramifications will be.

(Sefer- Living Each Week Rabbi Abraham Twerski M.D.)

Wishing you an inspiring Shabbos!

The Young Israel Congregation of Bal Harbour has an extensive Torah Library both in Hebrew and English. Our English Torah lending Library is located in the conference room and will be open Monday-Thursday 9:00AM-5:00PM. The Torah library has been made possible through the generous sponsorship of Andrew and Basya Lowinger in memory of Maurice Lowinger ז"ל, מאיר משה בן בן-ציון הלוי ז"ל

Our Siyum on the Tanach will take place on the second day of Shavuot, when we will have a community wide celebration. Although most of the Neviim and Kesuvim have been taken, the majority of the Chumash has not. Please click below to view what was taken and what is still available.
