The Dose

Tuesday December 1, 2015, Kislev 19 , 5776

Sponsored by: Susan and Aaron Weinberg

in honor of our Rav, Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein for his teaching and spiritual leadership.

What we call nature is in reality constant miracles that G-d performs for us at every moment. It is only because we are accustomed to this natural order that it does not appear like a miracle. We Jews believe in the concept of Techias Hamasim (the dead will live again); the truth is we are witness to this miracle on a daily basis. A seed is buried in the ground, it begins to decay and then a magnificent tree begins to grow. But because we are accustomed to this “natural” process we never stop to think how miraculous it truly is.

(Sefer: Living Emunah Rav Dovid Ashear)

Wishing you an inspiring day!
