The Dose

Wednesday November 11, 2015, Cheshvan 29 , 5776

Sponsored by: Susan and Aaron Weinberg

in honor of our Rav, Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein for his teaching and spiritual leadership.

Why does G-d want us to pray? It's because prayer is a way to build a relationship with G-d. Like a parent whose child is living far away from home eagerly awaits their child's phone call. G-d too waits for us to "call home". Unfortunately, like many children who will call only if they need money or are in trouble, we often don't call the Almighty unless we are in some kind of trouble. Therefore sometimes G-d sends us some of these "incentives" to motivate us to talk to Him.

Wishing you an inspiring day!

Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein
