Sponsored by: Susan and Aaron Weinberg

in honor of our Rav, Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein for his teaching and spiritual leadership.

The recognition of the paramount importance of our children's Jewish education must stand at the forefront of every parent's and teacher's consciousness. Each child is a link in the chain of the future of the Jewish people. Therefore, a yeshiva education is a must for every child. The earlier parents invest in their child's education, training him or her in charity, compassion and true Torah values, the more successful each child will be. A yeshiva education, especially in our generation, is not a luxury, and it's not an option, it's an absolute necessity. Those who cry now with self-sacrifice and give their children a Jewish education will in the future reap with joy.
