

Young Israel of Bal Harbour The Dose

Thursday October 29, 2015, Cheshvan 16 , 5776

Sponsored by: Susan and Aaron Weinberg

in honor of our Rav, Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein for his teaching and spiritual leadership.

A child who feels devoid of joy in life will seek pleasure in dark pastures. If the home provides him or her with a sense of warmth and support he will perceive his home as a refuge. Even if things are not going well at school he can still look forward to the Simcha found within the four walls of his home. However, if the face of the home wears a “frown”, if he is scolded and criticized at every turn, how will such a boy stay on the right path? Children are not all cut from the same cloth. Each child is a world onto himself, but with patience, love, and warmth miracles can happen.

Wishing you an inspiring day!
