Rav Chaim Vital once asked his great Rebbe the Arizal what will future generations look like when we see that even now (This was in the 1500's) a spiritual decline? Said the holy Arizal, the generation will keep on falling precipitously into almost spiritual oblivion. And in the generation before Mashiach the evil inclination will be very powerful because of the awesome influence that the Satan will have on that generation. But know this, said the Arizal, in the generation before Mashiach the slightest good deed done by a single Jew will be viewed in heaven as one of the greatest deeds of his generation.

Wishing you a great and inspiring day!
