

Keysha is the light for her family, but tomorrow there won't be power.

Keysha is raising her three grandchildren on a fixed income. Her battle with epilepsy keeps her unable to work consistently, leaving a gap in income. This month, she doesn't know how she's going to pay the power bill and her own energy is dimming.

Poverty robs people of dignity, hope and the power to determine their own future, but together we can make a difference. The Dallas Morning News Charities funds 20 local organizations that help those who are homeless, hungry and able to rehabilitate.

If you have it in your heart to help someone like Keysha's family, visit dmncharities.com

THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS
30TH CHARITIES

The Dallas Morning News Charities covers all administrative costs so that 100% of your tax-deductible donation goes directly to recipient agencies for those in need. The photo and name have been changed to protect the North Texan's identity.

The Dallas Morning News Charities, 5500 Caruth Haven Lane, Dallas, TX 75225-8146, 214.346.5546

#DMNcharities