Heidi Chance is a SME in the field of Sex Trafficking. She was featured in the Frontline, PBS 2019 documentary "Sex Trafficking in America".

Heidi Chance is a retired Human Trafficking undercover detective and law enforcement professional who has served over 25 years and brings a powerful lived-experienced message about the Domestic Sex Trafficking problem happening in our communities today.

She is an instructor for the National Justice Training Center of Fox Valley College, Amber Alert Program.

She brings first hand knowledge, real truths, and so much more from her experiences as an undercover and uses case study examples in her coaching, training, instruction and presentations.

She offers in-person, online, and live webinar training to both law enforcement and the community.

Testimonials

"Her presentation style is direct and full of examples. Heidi is a true expert."

"If you're looking for an expert on human trafficking look no further."

"I found the training not only informational but very interesting! It makes me feel better we're getting your input this being the first detail the department is running. I'm very excited for the type of work and appreciate your willingness to be involved and consult."

"The Power Of Awareness is working! It is proven by increased sentencing and understanding of the Sex Trafficking problem by Judges, Prosecutors , & Jurors."
