MAXCOM TELECOMUNICACIONES

Mexico City, Mexico, September 22nd, 2015 - Maxcom Telecomunicaciones, S.A.B. de C.V. (OTCQX: MXMTY, BMV: MAXCOM.CPO) (“Maxcom” or the “Company”) announces today that in line with its strategic plan and in order to have a more competitive corporate structure, focused on strengthening its position as a niche participant, has initiated a downsizing process that will be completed before September 30th. This process will generate annual savings of approximately $100 million pesos in payroll expenses that will start to be reflected as of October 2015.

Maxcom will continue to identify more efficiencies throughout the organization, looking at all times to have a healthy financial position that will allow it to continue focusing on the execution of its strategic plan, as well as on the improvements of its competitiveness capacity.
