i. Foreword	1
Part I- The Basal Constituents	3
I. Origins.....	4
II. The Problem	8
III. The Physics	12
IV. The Unifier	19
IV.1. Movement Categorizations	21
V. The Synthesis of Sport Preparations	24
VI. Sport Training Program Management.....	27
Part II- Principles and Methods	35
VII. Global Management Qualifications	36
VII.1. The Executive Chef	42
VII.2. The Symphonic Orchestral Conductor	43
VII.3. The Small Business Owner	44
VII.4. The General Contractor	45
VIII. Coaching Education.....	50
IX. Sometimes In Order To Create, One Must First Destroy	55
X. The Pyramidal Structure of Professional Success.....	56
X.1. The Foundation	57
X.2. The Infrastructure	58
X.3. The Apex	59
XI. Cultural Impact	60
XI.1. The Bedrock of Knowledge Creation.....	60
XI.2. The After Action Review	65
XI.3. Hierarchy of Needs.....	70
XI.3.1. Physiological Needs	71
XI.3.2. Safety	72
XI.3.3. Belonging- Love	72
XI.3.4. Self Esteem	73
XI.3.4. Self-Actualization	74
XII. Psychological Preparation.....	75
XII.1. Durability/Resilience.....	78
XII.2. Resolve	78
XII.3. Tenacity	78
XII.4. Relentlessness.....	79
XII.5. Commitment	80
XII.5.1. Task Specific Focus.....	84
XII.6. The Performance Reserve.....	86
XII.7. Cleansing the Emotions.....	89

XII.7.1. Emotional Control During Competition.....	91
XII.8. Self-Inflicted Psychological Performance Limiters.....	94
XII.8.1. The Past.....	94
XII.8.2. Self-Pity.....	96
XII.8.3. Regret.....	96
XII.8.4. The Future.....	96
XII.8.5. Fear/Anxiety/Stress.....	97
XII.8.6. Liabilities.....	99
XIII. Sport Structure- The Subdivisions of Tradecraft.....	102
XIII.1. The End of Strength and Conditioning.....	104
XIII.1.1. The Cultural Disease.....	105
XIII.2. Bioenergetics- Energy.....	109
XIII.2.1. Power and Capacity of the Bioenergetic Mechanisms.....	110
XIII.2.2. Applied Physiology- Anaerobic Supply Mechanisms.....	112
XIII.2.3. Anaerobic Alactic System- Short Term System.....	119
XIII.2.3.1. Methods of Developing Alactic Power.....	120
XIII.2.3.2. Methods of Developing Alactic Capacity.....	125
XIII.2.4. Training Intensity.....	129
XIII.2.4.1. Total Body/Global Movements.....	136
XIII.2.4.2. Compound Regional Movements.....	136
XIII.2.4.3. Single Joint Movements.....	136
XIII.2.5. Heart Rate Training Intensity and The Anaerobic Threshold....	141
XIII.2.5.1. Quantifying Heart Rate Training Intensity.....	141
XIII.2.6. Anaerobic Glycolytic System- Intermediate System.....	145
XIII.2.6.1. Methods of Developing Anaerobic Glycolytic Power.....	149
XIII.2.6.2. Methods of Developing Anaerobic Glycolytic Capacity.....	153
XIII.2.7. Aerobic/Oxidative System- Long Term System.....	159
XIII.2.7.1. Methods of Developing Aerobic Power.....	162
XIII.2.7.2. Methods of Developing Aerobic Capacity.....	165
XIII.2.8. Training Adaptations of Skeletal and Cardiac Muscle.....	169
XIII.2.8.1. Morpho-Functional Characteristics.....	169
XIII.2.8.2. Mitochondrial Biogenesis of the Type II Fibers.....	171
XIII.2.8.3. Morpho-Functional Characteristics of the Myocardium.....	174
XIII.2.8.3.1. Morpho-Functional Developments of the Myocardium.....	175
XIII.3. Biodynamics- Movement.....	176
XIII.3.1. Discerning Movement.....	177
XIII.3.2. Positions.....	178
XIII.3.3. Displacement.....	181
XIII.3.4. Translational Motion.....	182
XIII.3.5. Rectilinear Motion.....	182

XIII.3.6. Curvilinear Motion	189
XIII.3.6.1. Velocity	194
XIII.3.6.2. Acceleration	196
XIII.3.7. Rotational Motion	198
XIII.3.8. Oscillatory Motion	201
XIII.3.9. Kinetics	203
XIII.3.9.1. Newton’s Laws of Motion	205
XIII.3.9.1.1. 1 st Law	205
XIII.3.9.1.2. 2 nd Law	206
XIII.3.9.1.3. 3 rd Law	207
XIII.3.9.1.4. Impact Force and the Implications on Sport Technical Skill.....	210
XIII.3.9.2. Forces	211
XIII.4. Biomotor Abilities	221
XIII.4.1. Kurt Meinel’s Motor Quality Framework	222
XIII.4.1.1. Rhythm and Coupling.....	222
XIII.4.2. Running	225
XIII.4.3. Speed	228
XIII.4.3.1. Toe-Off.....	231
XIII.4.3.2. Flight Phase.....	234
XIII.4.3.3. Just Prior to Ground Contact.....	235
XIII.4.3.4. Ground Contact.....	238
XIII.4.3.5. Recovery Leg Passing Support Leg.....	239
XIII.4.3.6. Accelerating from a Low Start	242
XIII.4.3.7. Reserves.....	245
XIII.4.4. Reactive/Elastic Ability	249
XIII.4.5. Agility	254
XIII.4.6. Strength	267
XIII.4.6.1. Perspective	267
XIII.4.6.2. Maximal Strength.....	275
XIII.4.6.3. Explosive Strength	277
XIII.4.6.3.1. Jumps and Throws.....	279
XIII.4.6.3.1.1. Jumps.....	280
XIII.4.6.3.1.2. Throws.....	285
XIII.4.6.3.2. Neuromuscular Characteristics vs Titles.....	288
XIII.4.6.4. Strength Endurance	294
XIII.4.7. Stamina/Endurance.....	295
XIII.4.8. Flexibility/Mobility	297
XIII.4.8.1. Static Stretching.....	300
XIII.4.8.2. Dynamic Stretching	300
XIII.4.8.3. Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF).....	301
XIII.4.8.4. Longitudinal Stretching with Osteo-Articular

Decoaptation (ELDOA).....	302
XIII.4.9. Coordination/Skill.....	304
XIII.5. Physiotherapeutic Interventions.....	306
XIII.5.1. The Unification of Regeneration- Manual Therapy	307
XIII.6. Directing Biomotor Development	318
XIII.7. Special Physical Preparation	323
XIII.7.1. Specialized Developmental Exercises	328
XIII.7.2. Specialized Preparatory Exercises	331
XIII.7.3. Tonnage Solution Post Achievement of Usable Non-Specific Strength.....	334
XIII.8. The Conditioning Conundrum	338
XIII.9. Time: Motion Analysis	341
XIII.9.1. Dynamic Correspondence	343
XIII.10. Work Backwards From The Target	345
XIII.11. Technical Skill Development.....	346
XIII.11.1. Motor Skill Development.....	348
XIII.11.1.1. Preparing Athletes According to Their Stage of Motor Skill Development	349
XIII.11.1.2. Audible or Written Instructions.....	350
XIII.11.1.3. Visual Instructions	351
XIII.12. Sensorimotor Ability.....	353
XIII.13. Tactical Preparation	356
Part III- Evolution	360
XIV. Sport Engineering	361
XV. Track and Field	362
XVI. Programming and Organization of Training.....	367
XVI.1. Global Load Examples	369
XVI.1.1. Amateur Boxing Global Load Management.....	369
XVI.1.2. Shot Put Global Load Management	379
XVI.1.3. FIBA Basketball Global Load Management.....	381
XVI.2. Programming and Organizational Models	387
XVI.2.1. 3 Subject Test Preparation- Block	390
XVI.2.2. 3 Subject Test Preparation- Complex-Parallel	391
XVI.2.3. 6 Subject Test Preparation- Serial	392
XVI.2.4. 6 Subject Test Preparation- Complex-Parallel	393
XVI.2.5. Model Overview	394
XVII. Good Explanations	396
XVII.1. Because Of or In Spite Of.....	399
XVIII. Knowledge Creation	402
XVIII.1. Time Diagnostics	402
XVIII.2. Motion Requirements	404
XVIII.3. The Motions and The Relationships Between Them.....	407
XIX. The Unified Field Theory of Sport Preparation	411

XX. Long to Short, Short to Long, and Aggregate Approaches to Team and Combat Sport Preparation	415
XX.1. National Football League	416
XX.1.1. Long to Short.....	416
XX.1.1.1. More Total Repetitions	417
XX.1.1.2. Long to Short Repetitions.....	419
XX.1.1.3. Long to Short Duration.....	421
XX.1.4. Short to Long.....	423
XX.1.4.1. Short to Long Repetitions.....	426
XX.1.5. Aggregate	427
XX.1.5.1. Aggregate Blueprint.....	428
XX.1.6. Sub-Max Technical/Positional Power Speed	432
XX.1.7. Positional Oxidative Work.....	434
XX.1.8. The Looming Question.....	435
XX.1.9. Drill Possibilities.....	437
XX.1.10. Kicker/Punter Preparation	446
XX.1.11. Drill Problems in American Football Practice.....	448
XX.1.11.1. Offensive Line Shield Drills.....	448
XX.1.11.2. Bag Drills	449
XX.2. Rugby Union	451
XX.2.1. Forwards Long to Short Duration.....	455
XX.2.2. Backs Long to Short Duration.....	457
XX.2.3. Forwards Long to Short Reps	459
XX.2.4. Backs Long to Short Reps	461
XX.2.5. Short to Long Problems in Rugby	463
XX.2.6. Forwards Short to Long.....	465
XX.2.7. Backs Short to Long.....	467
XX.2.8. Loading Parameter Differences.....	469
XX.2.9. Drill Possibilities.....	469
XX.2.10. Rugby Technical Performance Factors.....	469
XX.3. Mixed Martial Arts.....	477
XX.3.1. 9 Week Block Examples.....	479
XX.3.1.1. Long to Short Duration on Saturday	481
XX.3.1.2. Long to Short Repetitions on Saturday	482
XX.3.1.3. Short to Long Duration on Saturday	483
XX.3.1.4. Aggregate on Saturday	484
XX.3.2. High Intensity Days 1 and 2	485
XX.3.3. Problems in MMA Strike Preparation.....	488
XXI. The Load Engineering Mathematics.....	489
XXII. Actualizing the Blueprints.....	495
XXIII. Output Trends During Competition as a Means of Honing Preparation	498
XXIV. The Sports Preparatory Operational Triumvirate	500
XXV. Physiotherapeutic Load Accountability	501

XXVI. General Accountability of the General Preparation.....	502
XXVI.1. Off-Season Preparation.....	502
XXVII. Preparatory Individualization	505
XXVIII. In-Season Preparation	508
XXIX. Diagram of Performance Constituents	509
XXX. Final Words.....	510
XXXI. Bibliography	512
