

The International Preschools
Celebrating 50 years of learning

Dear Parents,

Here is a summer reading list. I hope that you have many chances to visit the New York Public Library and that the NYPL's motto; "The right book in the right hands at the right time," might be realized for your child. What an exciting thought! You may wish to sign up to receive the family programs newsletter at: www.nypl.org/NYPLFamilyPrograms.
