

Lesson 04

Ravi Visits The Temple
With His Mother

Ravi is very happy.
He is going to the temple with his mother and grandmother.

He takes a bath and puts on clean clothes to go to the temple.

When he reaches the temple he bows to the statue of Jina.

He prays silently in front of the statue. He does not make any noise.

His grandmother says her prayers with her rosary.

He finds the temple very quiet and peaceful.

Rhyme:

Go to the temple
One little child, Standing quiet alone, To the temple happily I go!

Two little children, Standing straight in a row, To the temple happily we go!

Three little children,
Standing straight in a row,
To the temple happily we go!

Four little children,
Standing straight in a row,
To the temple happily we go!

Five little children,
Standing straight in a row,
To the temple happily we go!
