

Lesson 13

Seema Visits Her Uncle's Farm

My uncle's farm is so much fun!

I have so many friends on the farm.

When I was at the farm Calf and I ran a race with each other everyday.

Goat gave me a ride on her back, She would shout,

"Baa"

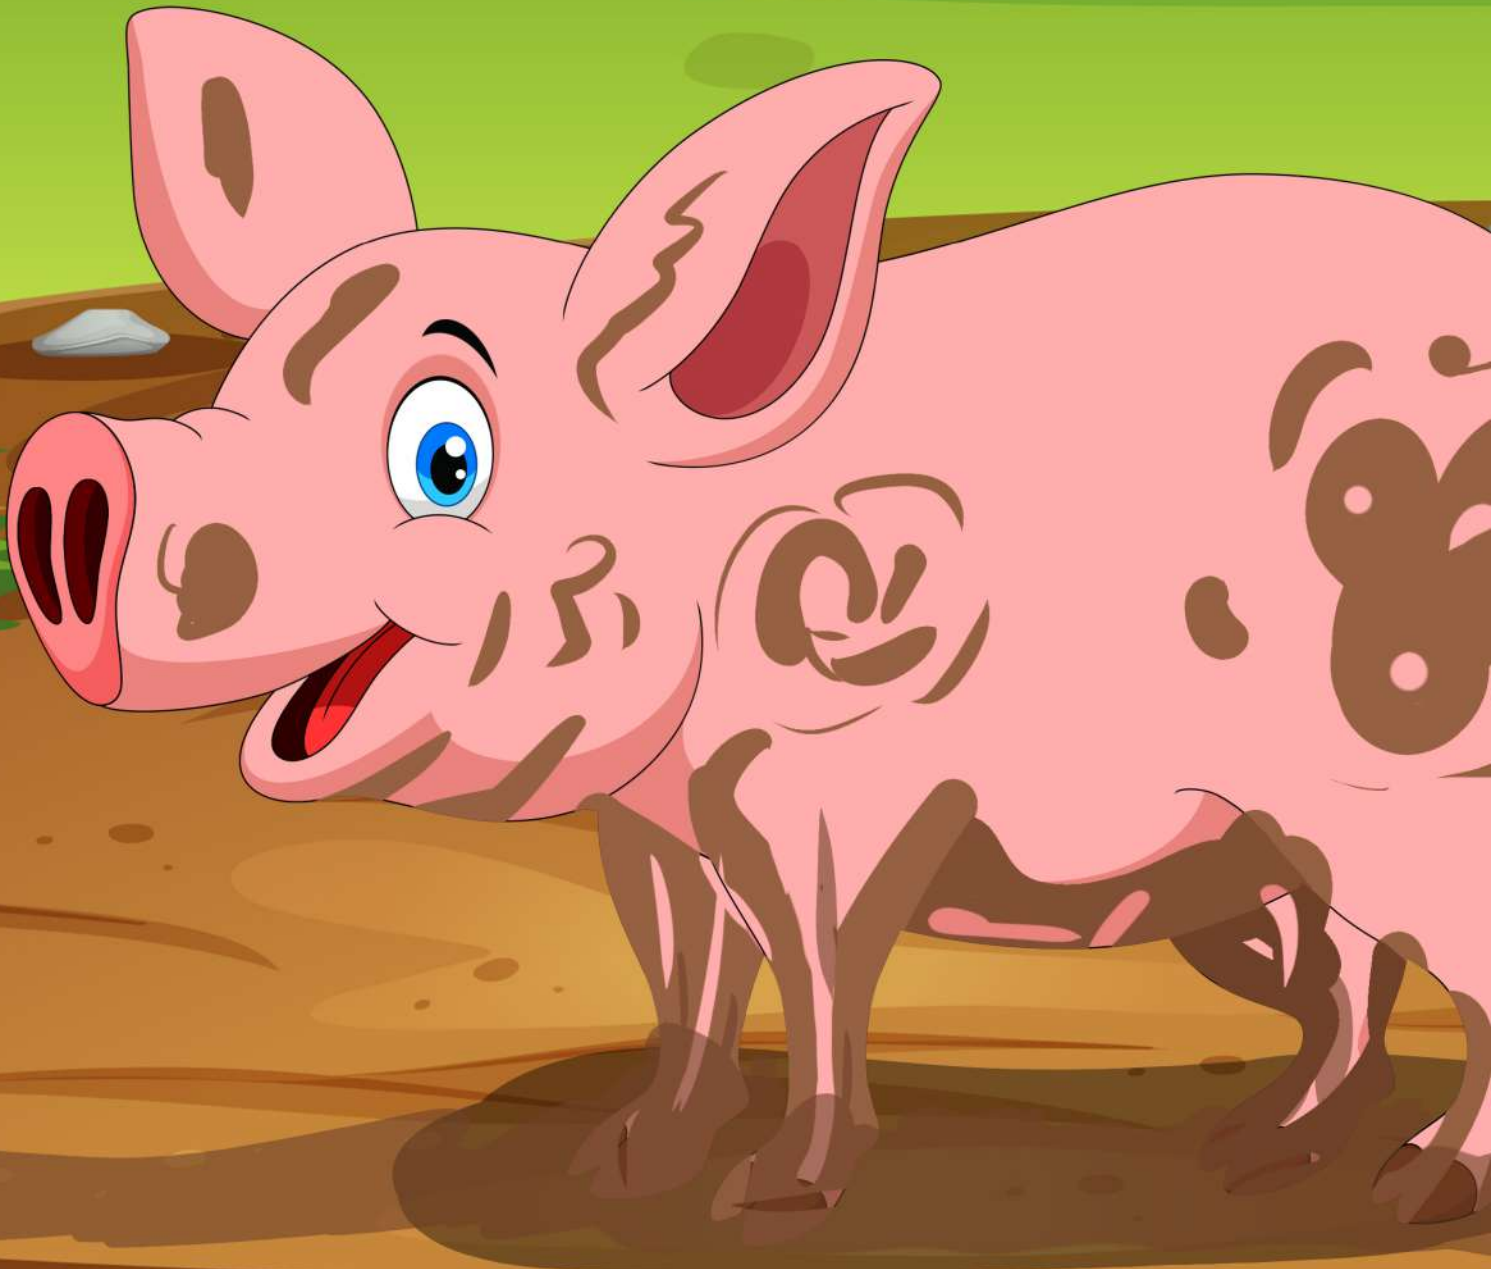

every time
she saw me.

Piggy and I went for a walk in the mud.

Sometimes both of us
would roll in the mud.

All the hens, the chicks
and the handsome cock,
Used to go

"cock o doodle do,"

when they heard
me coming.

Then we would play hide'n'
seek. It was fun.

I was sad when I had to leave my friends and come home.

I will go back again.

I hope we can play together.

Rhyme.

Seema And Her Farm Friends

Little Seema went to the farm,

There she had so much fun,
Piggy said,

Let's go for a ride,

Calf said,

"Let's hide!"

Goat and Sheep, both cried

"Baaa,"

"Sorry Seema we can't go far!"

Hoppitty hoppitty they went together,
Then chicken gave a lovely feather!

The farm animals became
such good friends,
They even played in the sand.

Everyday piggy would give her a ride,

Everyday calf and she would hide,

Everyday goat and sheep
would hop,

Till they reached the hilltop!

Everyday chicken would give her a feather,
They would have such fun
together

One day Seema had to go,
Back to home she had to go!

She was very sad, Even the animals felt bad!

She cried because she had to go She said,

"I hope to see you soon,
you know!"

The farm animals cried,

"We will miss you!"

Seema said,

"I'll come soon
to see you!"
