

Lesson 21

We Must Never Fight

Many a times we fight
on silly things.

While fighting we say
terrible things to others.

After the fight we feel bad about all those things
we have said.

After we fight our friends
may not talk to us.

So when the fight is over
we feel very bad.

Let us not fight.

STORY

The Horse And The Cow

Daily the horse and cow
were happily running together.

One day, they fought over the green grass that they were eating.

The horse did not want to share his grass and fields with the cow.

He thought that he is better than the cow, and told her so.

The cow got angry and did not talk to the horse.

The horse wanted that the cow should not run freely.

So he thought of a plan.

The horse went and asked
the man,

"have you tasted
the cows milk?"

"No! Is it good?"

"It is very good!"

Said the horse.

"It is very good indeed!"

"How do I get cow's milk?"

asked the man.

The horse pointed to the cow in the field.

"If you catch her,
she can give you
milk"

he said.

The man ran after the cow,
but the cow ran fast.

The man could not catch the cow.

"Climb onto my back,"

said the horse.

"I am faster than the cow.
You can catch her with my help!"

The man rode the horse
caught the cow.

The man thought, Why not
to keep the cow for milk,
and the horse for riding?

So, both the cow and the horse were caught,

just because they fought
over the simple green grass
in the fields.
